TERRAMIN APPOINTS NEW DIRECTOR

Emerging Australian listed zinc producer, Terramin Australia Limited (ASX: TZN) is pleased to announce the appointment of James (Jim) Thomas Hazel as a director of the company with effect on 26 April 2007 being the date of the next board meeting.

Terramin's executive chairman, Dr Kevin Moriarty, said "Mr Hazel will act in an independent and non-executive capacity and will be appointed chairman of the Terramin audit committee."

"The appointment significantly strengthens the financial expertise on the board and improves the corporate governance profile of Terramin as its market capitalisation continues to grow," he said.

Mr Hazel is currently chairman, Elders Rural Bank Limited where he also acts as chairman of its corporate governance committee and he is a member of the audit committee of the bank. He is a director of Impedimed Limited and chairman of its audit committee.

Previous executive positions held by Mr Hazel have been chief general manager, Adelaide Bank Limited and managing director, Primelife Corporation Limited.

A resolution confirming this appointment will be put to shareholders at the annual general meeting scheduled for early May 2007.
