Chairman's Letter

Dear Investor,

On behalf of the Board, I am delighted to invite you to become a Shareholder in Netccentric Limited ("Netccentric").

Netccentric has developed, built, owns and operates a number of marketplaces and associated businesses which connect advertisers across the Asia-Pacific Region ("APAC") with nearly 1 million blogs and over 230,000 social media influencers, who in turn engage their audiences of 41.6 million viewers per month across Singapore, Australia, Malaysia, Thailand, Philippines, China and the UK.

Netccentric's ambition is to creatively engage social media influencers across all platforms, including our own, to serve as a conduit between Advertisers and their consumers. We have begun proving this model in our existing markets and intend to replicate this model throughout APAC. There are immediate opportunities for us to grow by:

- Organically growing the size and number of Advertisers currently being serviced;
- Geographically expanding into new markets; and
- Implementing a mobile growth plan.

Netccentric is well positioned to benefit from the growing social media advertising spend in APAC by offering a vertically integrated suite of marketplaces and associated businesses which connect advertisers across APAC with bloggers and social media influencers to reach online and mobile audiences.

Since its foundation, Netccentric has grown its revenues to $11.1 million at the end of FY2014 from an initial investment of $54,902. Netccentric's objective is to continue its strong operational performance as it seeks to expand its businesses that operate in the digital advertising market, globally worth over USD$123 billion in 2013.

Netccentric's Board and Senior Management team are digital media and advertising veterans with a proven track record in media and advertising businesses throughout APAC.

Netccentric examined a number of securities exchanges before choosing to list on the Australian Securities Exchange Limited. Netccentric has chosen the ASX over the Singapore Exchange Limited and the Bursa Malaysia (and other potential securities exchanges) due to the sophistication of the Australian market and the market's existing familiarity with South East Asian technology companies. The Australian market also presents a significant growth opportunity for Netccentric and the Company plans to grow its revenue base in Australia by offering its full suite of products including Ripplewerkz, Reelity.TV, Churp Churp and Sashimi.

This Offer is being conducted to raise funds to scale our businesses in new and current geographies, grow our marketing initiatives, invest in continued technical innovation and to provide working capital.

An investment in Netccentric is subject to risks including failing to retain existing clients and attracting new ones, failure to expand into new markets and technology risk, amongst other factors. I encourage you to read through the summary of risks in our prospectus.

My board and I are confident that Netccentric will continue its growth, while continuing to innovate and harness the growth of the internet and social media particularly through mobile channels.

We warmly welcome you to join us as a Shareholder, and to participate in this investment opportunity.

Martyn Thomas
Chairman
Netccentric Limited

The business, assets and operations of Netccentric are subject to certain risk factors that have the potential to influence future operating and financial performance. These risks may have an impact on the value of an investment in Netccentric's Shares.

The Board aims to manage these risks by carefully planning its activities and implementing mitigating risk control measures. Some risks are unforeseeable and so the extent to which these risks can be effectively managed is somewhat limited.

The following are specific key risks to which the Company is exposed. The list of risks is not exhaustive and further details of these risks associated with an investment in the Company are described in Section 6.

Failure to retain existing clients and attract new ones	Netccentric relies on the revenue generated from its clients across its six businesses. There is a risk that clients paying a retainer fee could cease their contracts and the business could fail to attract further clients on both a project and retained basis.	Please refer to Section 6.1(a)
Failure to expand into new markets	There is the risk that the Company does not fulfil its expansion strategy to expand the business into new markets. This could be due to factors relating to the economy or a failure on the Company's part to execute the strategy as expected.	Please refer to Section 6.1(b)
Technology risk	If Netccentric's technology network is compromised for any reason or Netccentric's infrastructure and systems prove insufficient, Netccentric's ability to reliably service its clients may be compromised, which in turn may adversely impact on the Company's future financial performance.	Please refer to Section 6.1(c)
Industry and competition	Netccentric's competition may include businesses with much higher capitalisation and substantially greater resources. These competitors may succeed in developing products and services, which are either superior or additional to Netccentric's, resulting in the migration of existing clients and potential clients to a competitor's business.	Please refer to Section 6.1(d)
Regulatory risks	The introduction of new legislation or amendments to existing legislation in the key markets in which Netccentric operates could potentially impact the Company's operations and the financial performance of the business.	Please refer to Section 6.1(e)
Reliance on other social media platforms	Netccentric relies on selling the inventory of its Publishers on external social media platforms. Any technical or legal disruption to the ability to sell on these social media platforms could affect the Company's ability to achieve its objectives.	Please refer to Section 6.1(f)

TOPIC	SUMMARY	MORE INFO
Loss of Publishers	Netccentric's relationship with a wide range of content providers and copyright collections, including its exclusive contracts with nearly 400 influential Publishers, are a key contributor to the success of the business. The loss or deterioration of these relationships with content providers or an inability to renew contractual arrangements with such parties or negotiate agreements with new parties on terms which are not materially less favourable than those under existing arrangements, is likely to have an adverse effect on future financial performance.	Please refer to Section 6.3(g)
Significant control exerted by Existing Shareholders after the Offer	The investment being sought by the Company through the Offer is a minority stake in the Company. Depending on the number of Shares finally issued under the Offer, the Existing Shareholders will hold approximately 73% to 81% of the total issued Shares in the Company and will continue to be able to exert considerable control over the decisions made by the Company, including in relation to the election of Directors, the appointment of new management and the potential outcome of matters requiring a Shareholder vote. There is a risk that the interests of the Existing Shareholders may be different to the interests of other Shareholders.	Please refer to Section 6.3(h)
Significant liquidity risk	There is a significant liquidity risk since only a relatively small percentage of the Shares will be held by non-Existing Shareholders and the Existing Shareholders have agreed to enter into voluntary restriction agreements for a period of one year from Admission. This may affect the liquidity of the Shares on the ASX. In addition, there is a future dilution risk to minority Shareholders should the Company seek to raise further equity in accordance with its prospective business objectives. This risk arises particularly if Existing Shareholders elect to participate in future Share issues and minority Shareholders are unwilling or unable to participate in those capital raisings.	Please refer to Section 6.3(h)
Prevalence of related party leases	Netccentric Group companies lease the majority of its premises in Singapore and Malaysia from related parties of the Existing Shareholders. There is a risk that those leases may not be negotiated at arms' length terms, although the Company believes those leases are on normal commercial terms. Should a breakdown of these relationships occur, these Netccentric Group companies may be required to change premises and these new leases may be on different or less favourable terms.	Please refer to Sections 6.3(i) and 7.4

Joint venture arrangements risk	Netccentric operates its businesses in the Philippines, Australia, China, Thailand and the UK through joint venture arrangements with a local entity or entities. In addition, its Reelity.TV and Sashimi businesses are conducted in joint ventures. In the case of the Philippines, Netccentric holds less than 50% of the voting equity in the joint venture. These joint ventures have benefits for the Company but also carry greater risk than entities which are wholly owned or controlled by Netccentric. The key risks relate to the Company's level of control over the joint ventures and the Company's dependence on the relationship with, and conduct of, the joint venture counterparties. Although there are agreements in place with the key joint venture counterparties, these agreements do not guarantee performance by the joint venture counterparties and may not give the Company an adequate remedy in all cases. Details of the joint ventures arrangements including these risks are further discussed in Sections 1.1(f), 1.3(b), 6.3(j) and 7.1(e).	Please refer to Sections 1.1(f), 1.3(b), 6.3(j) and 7.1(e).

H. KEY DIFFERENCES BETWEEN SINGAPOREAN AND AUSTRALIAN COMPANY LAW

	As the Company is not incorporated in Australia, its general corporate activities (apart from any offering of Shares in Australia) are not regulated by the Corporations Act or by ASIC but instead are regulated by the Companies Act and ACRA. Although there are similarities between the two jurisdictions from a company law perspective, there are differences with respect to operation of certain laws and regulations concerning shares of publicly listed companies including but not limited to: • corporate procedures; • takeovers; • substantial shareholders reporting; • related party transactions; • protection of minority shareholders – oppressive conduct; and • two-strikes rule. For a more detailed description of differences of the above, please refer to Section 7.9.	Please refer to Section 7.9

1.1 COMPANY AND BUSINESS OVERVIEW

Netccentric Limited ("Netccentric" or the "Company") is a public company which is incorporated in and registered under the laws of Singapore and is the holding company of the Netccentric Group. Note: Not all Netccentric Group companies are 100% owned by Netccentric. Please refer to Section 1.3 for the full corporate structure and ownership details.

(d) Products and services offered

Within the four business units operated by Netccentric the Company offers a range of products and services ("Offerings").

Across its business units Netccentric's Offerings include:

- (v) Creation of websites, mobile apps, banners and other digital assets; and
- (vi) Mobile blogging solutions.

The Company continues to develop its Offerings over time in conjunction with its Publishers and Advertisers.

(e) What markets does Netccentric operate in?

Netccentric's current business operations and strategic focus is within the APAC region and the business has operations in Australia, Singapore, Malaysia, Thailand, Philippines and China.

The largest markets for the Company are Malaysia, Singapore and Australia generating 39%, 30% and 14% of the Company's revenues, respectively. These are followed by Thailand, China and the UK making up the remaining revenues.

In 2013 the Company made its first venture into the European market with the launch of Nuffnang in the United Kingdom.

(f) Netccentric's joint venture arrangements

Netccentric operates in the Philippines, Australia, China, Thailand and the UK through joint venture arrangements with a local entity or entities. In addition, its Reelity.TV and Sashimi businesses are conducted in joint ventures. In the case of the Philippines, Netccentric holds less than 50% of the voting equity in the joint venture vehicle.

The key reasons that Netccentric uses a joint venture structure in certain cases are as follows:

- (i) leverage: by partnering with joint venture partners, Netccentric can leverage from local networks and knowledge of their joint venture partners;
- (ii) capital efficiency: Netccentric's local joint venture partners are responsible for each of their respective capital contributions relative to their equity ownership;
- (iii) easier entry into new markets: by adopting a joint venture approach, Netccentric is more easily able to enter into new markets; and
- (iv) compliance: in some cases, the joint venture structure enables Netccentric to comply with local regulatory requirements, particularly relating to restrictions on levels of foreign ownership.

In each case, the joint venture counterparties have been selected on the basis of their potential contributions to building the Company's business, and they are not connected to the Directors or Existing Shareholders, except in the case of the Australian joint venture counterparty which is 47.5 % owned by Martyn Thomas and his wife.

The joint ventures that will be in place at the time of Official Quotation, and the percentage holding in those joint ventures are as follows:

- Australia

Nuffnang Australia Pty Ltd will be 51% owned by Netccentric.

- Thailand

Netccentric will hold 49% of the equity, and 51% of the voting rights, in Nuffnang (Thailand) Co. Ltd. Netccentric will own 49% of Exteen Co. Ltd and 25% of Exteen Co. Ltd will be owned by Nuffnang (Thailand) Co Ltd.

- Philippines

Nuffnang Philippines, Inc. will be 40% owned by Netccentric.

- China

Nuffnang – ECPod Holdings Ltd will be 63% owned by Netccentric, In turn, Nuffnang China Ltd will be 82% owned by Nuffnang – ECPod Holdings Ltd. Nuffnang (Beijing) Consulting Co. Ltd is 100% owned by Nuffnang China Ltd.

- UK

Nuffnang Ltd will be 60% owned by Netccentric.

- Singapore

Reelity.TV Pte Ltd will be 51% owned by Netccentric. Sashimi Pte Ltd will be 51% owned by Netccentric. In turn, Sashimi SG Pte Ltd will be 80% owned by Sashimi Pte Ltd.

- Malaysia

Sashimi Social Sdn Bhd will be 100% owned by Sashimi Pte Ltd.

As a result, Netccentric has a controlling interest in all of the joint ventures except the Philippines, where the Company's interest is less than 50%.

Although, as outlined above, there are benefits from adopting a joint venture structure, there are also risks associated with these joint ventures. The key risk is the lack of full control of those joint ventures, and reliance on the relationship with, and conduct of, the joint venture counterparties. This is particularly the case in the Philippines where Netccentric holds less than a controlling interest in the voting rights in relation to the joint venture entity. These risks are managed but not eliminated, by entry into joint venture arrangements or shareholders' agreements with the key joint venture counterparties.

Further discussion of the joint venture arrangements and the risks associated with them are contained in Sections 1.3(b) and 6.3(j).

(g) Who are Netccentric's Advertisers?

Netccentric's Advertisers comprise businesses wishing to promote their products and services.

Advertisers include blue-chip corporations in the retail, food and beverage, automotive and telecommunications sectors.

(h) Company History

(i) Key strengths(i) Leading platforms

Nuffnang is one of APAC's largest blog advertising communities with over 950,000 blogs reaching over 41.6 million people a month. Churp Churp is one of South East Asia's leading network of social media influencers with over 230,000 Influencers.

(ii) Significant addressable markets

The markets that Netccentric businesses operate in have a combined population of 1.65 billion people as of 2013. Social mobile activity is a growing digital trend in APAC, with the number of people in the region accessing social media from mobile devices increasing by 27% in the past year, to reach 900 million (Source: We Are Social, Digital, Social & Mobile in APAC in 2015 – <http://wearesocial.net/blog/2015/03/digital-social-mobile-apac-2015/>).

(iii) Operating in a rapidly growing sector

Digital advertising spend in APAC hit USD$30 billion in 2012 and is expected to grow in 4 years to exceed USD$52 billion in 2016 (Source: eMarketer 2013 – <http://www.emarketer.com/Article/APAC-Digital-Ad-Spending-Jump-Nearly-20-This-Year/1011018>).

(iv) Specialised offering

Netccentric eliminates the need to locate and interact with individual Publishers. Similarly, Netccentric's solutions allow Publishers to generate income without having a separate sales channel to reach Advertisers. Advertisers therefore avoid the need to invest heavily in additional physical or IT infrastructure, reducing costs, accelerating time to market and creating additional revenue streams for the Publisher.

(v) Strong growth profile and track record

Netccentric can drive revenue growth through increased transaction volumes with existing Advertisers as well as adding Advertisers to its network and has a proven track record of doing so. Since 2010 the Company's revenues have increased on average 20% per year.

Netccentric will be able to provide a comprehensive suite of products and services to new and existing Advertisers in the markets Netccentric is targeting for geographical expansion.

(i) Strong referral network

Netccentric benefits from a network effect and expands via introductions from existing Advertisers and its network of Publishers. Through word of mouth and Advertiser referrals the Company has a cost effective growth strategy.

(ii) Blue-chip Advertiser base

Netccentric's Advertiser base includes blue-chip businesses in the retail, food and beverage, automotive and telecommunications sectors that have worked with Netccentric products over a number of years.

(iii) Experienced management team with strong track record

Netccentric's Senior Management team, led by Cheo Ming Shen, is experienced in the technology and advertising sectors.

Netccentric's longstanding Senior Management team has been instrumental in the success of the business and is well placed to execute further on the business's growth strategy.

Further detail on the board and management can be found in Sections 4.1 and 4.2.

1.2 NETCCENTRIC'S BUSINESS MODEL(a) Advertisers and Publishers*(i) Why do Advertisers and Publishers use Netccentric?

Advertisers use Netccentric to enable them to grow their business through social media. Netccentric aggregates Publishers allowing Advertisers to target their marketing messages to specific audiences. Netccentric provides Publishers with revenue from Advertisers, allowing them to focus their business efforts on the creation of content for their audiences.

(ii) How do Advertisers and Publishers use Netccentric?

Netccentric accepts and processes Publisher applications through its website. Netccentric then services Advertisers by providing them with the ability to target Publishers which are most relevant to them.

(b) Sources of revenue

Netccentric's revenue is generated from different sources across its business units. In FY2014, approximately 59.2% of Netccentric's revenue was generated from content creation and sponsorship fees, meaning the Advertiser paid the Company for content created by Publishers.

There are predominantly four main sources, which are the key revenue drivers:

(i) Content creation and sponsorship fees

Advertisers pay Netccentric's network of Publishers to create branded content on their respective social media platforms. There are two types of content creation across the Netccentric business: social influencer postings (when a blogger writes a sponsored article endorsing a brand) and video content (content is created by Reelity.tv and clients are charged per production of each video).

This content is used to reach out to consumers and to promote an Advertiser's products or services through an independent and influential Publisher.

(ii) Display and banner advertising fees

Netccentric runs display and banner advertising across its network that reaches 41.6 million people globally. Advertisers pay on a cost per visit or cost per impression or click basis.

(iii) Marketing agency and production fees

Netccentric assists Advertisers in planning and executing strategies to promote their products or services. Revenue is generated from consultation fees or retainers from long-term Advertisers.

Fees vary depending on the size and length of the project and whether the client is a long-term retained client.

(iv) Digital Asset Production fees

Netccentric creates websites, mobile apps, banners and other digital assets for Advertisers. Revenue is generated from production fees charged to Advertisers.

(c) Sources of expenses

Netccentric's expenses comprise of the following:

(i) Cost of sales

The cost of sales includes direct expenses paid to third-party bloggers and social media influencers ("Publishers"), who are paid a fee to create or promote Advertisers' content, and IT costs.

(ii) Employee benefits expense

Employee benefits expenses are associated with payments to Netccentric's staff (wages and salaries).

(iii) Overheads and other indirect expenses

Overheads and other indirect expenses include rent on premises, travel, accommodation, Board costs, compliance, insurance and other similar expenses.

(iv) Advertiser development expenses

Advertiser development expenses relate to cost of acquiring new users, Publishers and Advertisers via marketing initiatives or sponsorship of events.

(v) Depreciation and amortisation expenses

Depreciation and amortisation expenses relate to the depreciation of computer hardware and infrastructure and amortisation of the Company's intellectual property. Typically, the plant and equipment is written off either at purchase or over three or five years, depending on its useful life and initial purchase cost.

1.3 CORPORATE STRUCTURE OF THE NETCCENTRIC GROUP(a) Corporate Structure

Netccentric Limited is the holding company of Netccentric Group. The Company was incorporated in 2006 as part of a corporate re-structure of the Netccentric Group.

The following diagram details the pro-forma corporate structure of the Netccentric Group following the completion of the transactions referred to in Section 7.5:

Note: the Company will acquire the remaining minority interests in Nuffnang Pte Ltd, Nuffnang Sdn Bhd and RippleWerkz Pte Ltd before or as soon as practicable after Official Quotation of the Shares – see Sections 1.3(c) and 7.5 for more details.

Netccentric's corporate structure is important to its current and future success by allowing it to have a diverse and large geographical footprint globally.

(b) Joint venture arrangements

Netccentric operates in the Philippines, Australia, China, Thailand and the UK through joint venture arrangements with a local entity or entities. In addition, Reelity.TV and Sashimi businesses are conducted through joint ventures. The key benefits of these joint venture arrangements are set out in Section 1.1(f).

However, operating through joint venture arrangements is not without risk especially where Netccentric holds less than 50% of the total equity issued in the relevant joint venture.

Counterparty risk

The key risk for the Company under the joint venture arrangements is the lack of control and the risk of reliance on the relationship with, and conduct of, the joint venture counterparties. Netccentric mitigates this risk by entering into joint venture or shareholder agreements with those counterparties for each key joint venture arrangement. The risk is increased where the Company does not have a controlling interest (such as the Philippines) so that it is not in control of the day-to-day decision-making of the joint venture vehicle.

Broadly, these joint venture and shareholders' agreements in relation to the key joint venture arrangements contain some or all of the following provisions:

- they restrict the ability of the parties to sell their interest in the joint venture arrangement without first offering that interest to the party;
- they allow Netccentric to "drag along" the joint venture counterparty into a sale of the joint venture to a third party (subject, in some cases, to achieving a minimum sale price);
- they allow Netccentric to buy out the joint venture counterparty's interest if there is a change in control of the joint venture counterparty;
- they contain a non-compete clause preventing the parties competing with the joint venture vehicle; and
- there are certain key reserved shareholder matters which require the affirmative vote of at least one of Netccentric's representatives on the board before the board can resolve to proceed.

In some cases, the Company has entered into licensing agreements with the joint venture entities under which the Company's intellectual property is licensed to the relevant joint venture entity in return for a fee based on revenues. There is also a loan in existence between Netccentric Limited and the Australian joint venture entity, Nuffnang Australia Pty Ltd.

Summaries of the key joint venture arrangements are set out in Section 7.1(e).

Other risks

Some other risks Netccentric may face from operating in joint venture jurisdictions include but are not limited to:

- (i) imposition of restrictions on foreign ownership and control of assets requiring the divestment of Netccentric's interest in the joint venture;
- (ii) nationalisation or confiscation of assets with or without compensation;
- (iii) imposition of selective taxation regimes on foreign corporations; and
- (iv) imposition of selective taxation regimes on business sectors.

For further discussion of joint venture arrangement risks, please refer to Section 6.3(j).

(c) Acquisition of Minority Interest Agreements

The Company has entered into sale and purchase agreements with shareholders ("Vendors") of the following companies:

- Nuffnang Sdn Bhd;
- Nuffnang Pte Ltd; and
- RippleWerkz Private Limited.

The completion of these agreements will result in the Company becoming the 100% shareholder of these Netccentric Group companies.

The Company will acquire Tiah Ewe Tiam's and Tong Kok Chiang's (Cheo Ming Shen's Step-Father's) respective one share in Nuffnang Sdn Bhd and Nuffnang Pte Ltd as part of the acquisition of the relevant minority interests in Nuffnang Sdn Bhd and Nuffnang Pte Ltd respectively.

The purchase price under these agreements will be satisfied by the issue of Shares ("Consideration Shares") to each Vendor based on the valuation agreed between the parties for the Vendor's shares and a value for the Shares equal to the Offer Price. The agreement is conditional upon the conditional approval of the ASX to the quoting and listing of the Shares on the ASX.

The Company intends to complete the acquisition of each Vendor's Shares before Admission or as soon as reasonably practicable after the Official Quotation of the Shares, and will apply for the quotation of the Consideration Shares.

The total number of Shares to be issued to acquire all of the Vendor's Shares under the sale and purchase agreements will be approximately 7,556,872 Shares.

1.4 CAPITAL STRUCTURE OF THE COMPANY

1.5 STRATEGY

Netccentric's strategic objective is to deliver long-term returns, revenue growth and profitability to Shareholders. The Company has identified and is pursuing a range of business strategic priorities to take advantage of its market opportunities in APAC and beyond. Netccentric believes there is significant scope for the Company to grow revenue and profitability from its business strategy, as outlined in the table below.

STRATEGIC PRIORITY	DESCRIPTION
Organic growth in the size and number of Advertisers currently being serviced	In existing markets, Netccentric aims to achieve revenue growth by: - Increasing the average revenue per client by completing its targeted product suite and introducing a further range of paid for products across Sashimi, Reelity.tv and RippleWerkz; and - Increasing the number of clients by acquiring more SME (Small and Medium Enterprises) clients in APAC, a market that remains relatively untapped and under-serviced in the digital marketing space.
Geographic expansion into existing and new markets	Netccentric aims to open new revenue streams for business units in countries where the Company has an existing business, and to expand other businesses into new markets in APAC such as Vietnam, Indonesia and Taiwan. With Netccentric's technology and regional infrastructure, the Company expects to reduce the incubation period of these new markets.
Implementation of a mobile growth plan	Netccentric aims to capitalise on the growth in mobile by scaling the sale of mobile ads on the Nuffnang display network and continuing development on new social media related mobile apps such as Dayre.

1.6 CASE STUDIES

Netccentric's business units have delivered effective social media advertising campaigns for their Advertisers. The following are actual case studies of such campaigns:

(a) Dubai Tourism Board Campaign

Industry Overview

2.1 ADVERTISING INDUSTRY OVERVIEW

The advertising industry comprises of six primary segments: television, audio, out of home, newspapers, consumer magazines and digital. The performance of the advertising industry is generally driven by broad macroeconomic conditions globally, including:

- (a) General levels of economic activity in the economy;
- (b) Business confidence; and
- (c) Consumer sentiment.

According to the McKinsey & Company Global Media Report 2014, global advertising expenditure has demonstrated growth over the long term, having grown from USD$408 billion in 2008 to a forecasted USD$494 billion in 2014 (Source: McKinsey & Company Global Media Report 2014 – http://www.mckinsey.com/client_service/media_and_entertainment/latest_thinking/global_media_report_2014). Throughout 2012 and 2013, advertising industry expenditure continued to grow in spite of decline in consumer magazines and newspaper expenditure. This growth was primarily driven by the shift towards digital advertising.

Netccentric operates in the fast growing segment of the advertising industry, the digital advertising sector.

Digital advertising

The digital advertising industry has experienced strong historical growth over the last 5 years as advertising has shifted away from other traditional media sources such as newspapers and magazines. Based on the McKinsey & Company Global Media Report 2014, digital advertising attracted over 26% of total global advertising expenditure reaching USD$123 billion in 2013 (Source: McKinsey & Company Global Media Report 2014 – http://www.mckinsey.com/client_service/media_and_entertainment/latest_thinking/global_media_report_2014).

APAC advertising industry

According to the McKinsey & Company Global Media Report 2014, in APAC alone the total spend on advertising in 2013 reached over USD$137 billion, a 6% Compound Annual Growth Rate (“CAGR”) in five years (Source: McKinsey & Company Global Media Report 2014 – http://www.mckinsey.com/client_service/media_and_entertainment/latest_thinking/global_media_report_2014). The trend towards digital advertising is also prevalent in APAC with an estimated USD$34 billion spent in the region on digital advertising in 2013 (Source 2.1: eMarketer, 2014).

(c) Social media and content marketing

What is social media marketing?

Social media marketing is the process of gaining website traffic or attention through social networks. Social media marketing programs usually centre on efforts to create content that attracts attention and encourages readers to share it across their social networks. When the underlying message spreads from user to user and presumably resonates because it appears to come from a trusted, third-party source, as opposed to the brand or company itself, this form of marketing results in earned media rather than paid media.

Social media platforms have transformed the landscape of consumer conversation. The continual emergence of new platforms, such as Twitter, LinkedIn, Facebook, Pinterest, Instagram and Google, has spurred growth and increased user numbers. This has also been augmented by the arrival of new devices like tablets and increased smartphone capabilities for social media platforms. Estimates by industry consultants forecasted that there would be approximately 1.97 billion social network users across the globe in 2014 (Source: eMarketer, 2015 – <http://www.emarketer.com/Article/Social-Networking-Reaches-Nearly-One-Four-Around-World/1009976>) and user numbers are continuing to increase. In 2015 it is estimated that the total active social media users in the APAC was over 1 billion people. (Source 2.5: We Are Social, 2015).

Source 2.5: Digital penetration in APAC

Source: We Are Social, 2015 – <http://www.slideshare.net/wearesocialsg/digital-social-mobile-in-apac-in-2015/>

As mentioned in Section 2.2(b) figures indicate that expenditure on social network advertising globally has grown to approximately USD$17.2 billion in 2014 up from USD$11.5 billion in 2013.

With this growth, social media has become a major player in the advertising arena. Recent moves by social media platforms towards pay-for-play models, increasingly precise advertising analytics and audience buying tools have turned what started primarily as a means for social interaction into an increasingly effective marketing tool. Assuming the social media market continues to grow, business will need to find increasingly innovative and effective ways to use social networks to market to consumers and interact with Advertisers.

APAC's average spend on social network advertising per person in APAC reached USD$3.60 per user in 2014 and this is forecast to increase to USD$4.12 by the end of 2015 (Source 2.6).

What is content marketing?

Content marketing is defined by the Content Marketing Institute (<http://contentmarketinginstitute.com/>) as a strategic marketing approach focused on creating and distributing valuable, relevant, and consistent content to attract and retain a clearly-defined audience – and ultimately, to drive profitable customer action. This information can be presented in a variety of formats, including news, video, white papers, ebooks, infographics, case studies, how-to guides, question and answer articles, and photos.

According to Gartner's 2014 "Digital Marketing Budgets Increase, Reflecting Focus on Advertiser Experience" approximately 9.3% of digital marketing budgets were allocated to content creation and management (Source 2.7: Gartner, 2014) and digital marketing is currently used by some of the largest marketing organisations in the world such as Proctor & Gamble, Microsoft, Cisco and John Deere. Content marketing is often linked to social media, as social media is often used as the distribution or amplification platform for content.

2.3 INDUSTRY OUTLOOK

Significant growth opportunities exist for the digital marketing industry in which Netccentric operates. This is led by changing consumer preferences and demands, which advertisers are trying to keep up with.

Advertisers are increasingly focused on opportunities to reduce the cost of customer acquisition. Whether this is by leveraging their content and the growing audiences on social networks or building deeper consumer relationships and improving targeting and segmentation to reach new audiences, all have the objective of driving end growth in revenues and profits and are a key objective for Netccentric.

The demand from Advertisers for increasingly innovative digital marketing solutions is coupled with the demand from Publishers for opportunities to diversify and build their existing revenue streams. Netccentric's solution is well positioned between the two to provide technology that provides Advertisers with direct and targeted links to Publishers. As demand from Advertisers to know more about their audiences grows, Netccentric is well positioned to provide them with a deeper understanding of their audience, enabling them to better serve both its Advertisers and their campaign objectives.

3.11 CHESS AND CDIS

Successful Applicants should note that, as the Company is incorporated and registered in Singapore, they will be issued with CDIs instead of Shares under this Prospectus. This is because, under Singapore law, except for systems expressly provided for in the Companies Act, electronic share trading systems such as ASX's CHESS are not recognised and are incapable of transferring the ownership in shares of Singapore companies.

CDIs issued pursuant to this Prospectus will allow beneficial title to the Shares to be held and transferred. CDIs are electronic depositary interests or receipts issued and are units of beneficial ownership in securities registered in the name of CHESS Depositary Nominees Pty Ltd ("CDN"). CDN is a wholly owned subsidiary of ASX. The main difference between holding CDIs and Shares is that the holder of CDIs has beneficial ownership of the underlying Shares instead of legal title. Legal title to the underlying Shares is held by CDN for the benefit of the CDI Holder. The Shares underlying the CDIs issued pursuant to this Prospectus will be registered in the name of CDN for the benefit of CDI Holders. Each CDI represents one underlying Share.

CDN receives no fees from investors for acting as the depositary nominee in respect of CDIs.

CDI Holders have the same economic benefits of holding the underlying Shares. CDI Holders are able to transfer and settle transactions electronically on ASX.

With the exception of voting rights, the CDI Holders are entitled to equivalent rights and entitlements as if they were the legal owners of Shares. CDI Holders will receive notices of general meetings of Shareholders. As CDI Holders are not the legal owners of underlying Shares, CDN, which holds legal title to the Shares underlying the CDIs, is entitled to vote at shareholder meetings of the Company on the instruction of the CDI Holders on a poll, not on a show of hands. CDI Holders are entitled to give instructions for one vote for every underlying Share held by CDN. Refer to Section 7.7 for further information about CDIs.

The Company will apply to participate in the Clearing House Electronic Subregister System ("CHESS"), which is the ASX electronic transfer and settlement system in Australia, in accordance with the Listing Rules and ASX Operating Rules. Settlement of trading of quoted shares on the ASX market takes place on CHESS. CHESS allows for and requires the settlement of transactions in shares quoted on ASX to be effected electronically. On admission to CHESS, the Company will operate an electronic issuer-sponsored sub-register and an electronic CHESS sub-register. The two sub-registers together will make up the Company's register of CDI Holders.

The Company will not issue certificates of title to CDI Holders. Instead, as soon as is practicable after allotment, successful Applicants will receive a holding statement which sets out the number of CDIs issued to them, in much the same way as the holder of shares in an Australian incorporated ASX-listed entity would receive a holding statement in respect of shares. A holding statement will also provide details of a CDI Holder's HIN (in the case of a holding on the CHESS sub-register) or SRN (in the case of a holding on the issuer sponsored sub-register).

Following distribution of these initial holding statements, an updated holding statement will only be provided at the end of any month during which changes occur to the number of CDIs held by CDI Holders. CDI Holders may also request statements at any other time (although the Company may charge an administration fee).

Prior to Admission, the Company will procure that existing Shareholders are allowed to convert their existing Shares into CDIs to enable them to trade on ASX. Upon conversion of those Shares into CDIs the share certificates which were previously issued in respect of those Shares will cease to have effect as documents of title.

3.12 ASX LISTING AND OFFICIAL QUOTATION

Within 7 days after the date of this Prospectus, the Company will apply to ASX for admission to the Official List and for the Shares, including those offered by this Prospectus, to be granted Official Quotation (apart from any Shares that may be designated by ASX as restricted securities).

If ASX does not grant permission for Official Quotation within 3 months after the date of this Prospectus (or within such longer period as may be permitted by ASIC) none of the Shares offered by this Prospectus will be allotted and issued. If no allotment and issue is made, all Application Monies will be refunded to Applicants (without interest) as soon as practicable.

ASX takes no responsibility for the contents of this Prospectus. The fact that ASX may grant Official Quotation is not to be taken in any way as an indication of the merits of the Company or the Shares offered pursuant to this Prospectus.

3.13 ALLOTMENT

Management discussion

(i) Revenue

The financial performance in the historical consolidated pro-forma statements of profit or loss reflects steady growth in revenue for FY2012, FY2013 and FY2014. Over the three most recent financial years from FY2012 to FY2014, pro-forma revenue increased from $7.1 million to $11.1 million, representing compound growth of 25.2% per annum, and a 16% and 35% growth in FY2013 and FY2014 respectively.

The key drivers that have influenced the historical pro-forma revenue growth include the following:

- Growth in client numbers (FY2012: 483, FY2013: 643, FY2014: 824);
- Growth in average spend per client from FY2013 to FY2014 (2013: $12,845, 2014: $13,489);
- Growth in business units, namely Influencer Platform, Digital Asset Production and Social Media Agency as can be seen below:

Business Units	FY2012 $	FY2013 $	FY2014 $
Influencer Platform	3,501,228	4,600,465	6,583,382
Display Ad Network	3,107,891	2,779,106	2,237,788
Digital Asset Production	481,652	744,466	1,553,551
Social Media Agency	-	135,075	740,079
Total (Pro-Forma Revenue)	7,090,771	8,259,112	11,114,800

- A new business unit, Sashimi, the Social Media Agency arm of Netccentric;
- Clients' increased demands for video production (Digital Asset Production) as evidenced by a 108.7% increase in revenue from FY2013 to FY2014;
- Maintaining a client retention rate of 30.9% in FY2014 compared to 26.4% in FY2013;
- Securing 569 new clients in FY2014, which is an increase of 103 new clients from 466 new clients in FY2013.

Revenue is underpinned by the Influencer Platform where Advertisers can promote their products and services across a network of over 950,000 targeted blogs as well as over 230,000 social media influencers in multiple geographies. Historical consolidated pro-forma revenue by geographical region is as follows:

Country	FY2012 $	FY2013 $	FY2014 $
Singapore	1,859,143	2,233,828	3,351,771
Malaysia	3,569,160	3,769,520	4,312,130
Australia	1,302,140	1,195,635	1,519,687
Thailand	214,610	636,233	1,224,945
China	145,718	416,341	638,801
United Kingdom	-	7,555	67,466
Total (Pro-Forma Revenue)	7,090,771	8,259,112	11,114,800

The key markets are Malaysia, Singapore and Australia, which collectively contribute 94.9%, 87.2% and 82.6% to the Group's pro-forma revenue in FY2012, FY2013, and FY2014 respectively. The declining contribution from these key markets to the Group's overall performance from FY2012 to FY2014 indicate that Thailand, China and the UK are emerging markets which have shown a steady increase in growth over the last few years.

(ii) Expenses

Netccentric's key costs of doing business are set out below:

Cost of sales – including direct expenses paid to third-party bloggers and social media influencers, who are paid a fee to create or promote Advertisers' content, as well as server costs. Cost of sales from different business units ranges from 30% to 50% of revenue.

Employee benefits expense – including salaries, wages and other employment related costs of staff employed by Netccentric. Employee costs vary only with new additions to the team as well as incremental payments given to employees depending on their yearly performance.

Overheads and other indirect expenses – including rent on premises, travel, accommodation, Board costs, compliance, insurances, utilities, professional fees and administrative expenses. Rent on premises, travel and professional fees, which collectively contribute to 39.9%, 44.2% and 43.6% to the Group's administration expenses in FY2012, FY2013, and FY2014 respectively, have remained relatively consistent.

Advertiser development expenses – including marketing initiatives or sponsorship of events to acquire new users, Publishers and Advertisers.

Depreciation and amortisation expenses – these expenses relate to the depreciation of computer hardware and infrastructure and amortisation of the Company's intellectual property. Depreciation expenses as a percentage of administration expenses have increased from 5.4% in FY2012 to 7.9% in FY2013 and decreased to 6.1% in FY2014. The increase from FY2012 to FY2013 is mainly due to an increase in purchase of computer hardware and software.

Costs of Doing Business as AUD$ and % of Revenue

Total cost of doing business as a percentage of revenue has decreased from 64.0% in FY2012 to 62.1% in FY2013 to 53.6% in FY2014, as a result of achieving scale and streamlining operations. In terms of staff costs, technology has also increased the productivity of each person as staff costs as a percentage of revenue has decreased from 46% in FY2013 to 38% in FY2014.

5.4 NOTES TO THE FINANCIAL INFORMATION

1. STATEMENT OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

The financial information covers the consolidated entity consisting of Netccentric Limited and its controlled entities.

The principal accounting policies adopted in the preparation of the financial information are set out below.

(a) Basis of Preparation

The financial information has been prepared in accordance with Australian Accounting Standards applicable to non-reporting entities and the significant accounting policies disclosed below, which the directors have determined are appropriate to meet the needs of the members.

The financial information has been prepared on an accruals basis and is based on historical costs and does not take into account changing money values or, except where specifically stated, current valuations of non-current assets.

The following specific accounting policies have been adopted in the preparation of this report:

(b) Principles of Consolidation

The consolidated financial information incorporates the assets and liabilities of all entities controlled by Netccentric Limited ("the Company") as at the end of the financial year and the results of all controlled entities for the year then ended. Netccentric Limited and its controlled entities are referred to in this financial report as the consolidated entity or "the Group". The effects of all transactions between entities in the consolidated entity are eliminated in full.

Acquisitions

The acquisition method of accounting is used to account for business combinations by the Group.

The consideration transferred for the acquisition of a subsidiary or business comprises the fair value of the assets transferred, the liabilities incurred and the equity interests issued by the Group. The consideration transferred also includes the fair value of any contingent consideration arrangement.

If the business combination is achieved in stages, the acquisition date carrying value of the acquirer's previously held equity interest in the acquiree is re-measured to fair value at the acquisition date; any gains or losses arising from such re-measurement are recognised in profit or loss. Acquisition-related costs are expensed as incurred.

Identifiable assets acquired and liabilities and contingent liabilities assumed in a business combination are, with limited exceptions, measured initially at their fair values at the acquisition date.

On an acquisition-by-acquisition basis, the Group recognises any non-controlling interest in the acquiree at the date of acquisition either at fair value or at the non-controlling interest's proportionate share of the acquiree's net identifiable assets.

The excess of (a) the consideration transferred, the amount of any non-controlling interest in the acquiree and the acquisition-date fair value of any previously-held equity interest in the acquiree over (b) the fair values of the identifiable assets acquired net of the fair values of the liabilities and any contingent liabilities assumed, is recorded as goodwill.

Disposals

When a change in the Group's ownership interest in a subsidiary results in a loss of control over the subsidiary, the assets and liabilities of the subsidiary including any goodwill are derecognised. Amounts previously recognised in other comprehensive income in respect of that entity are also reclassified to profit or loss or transferred directly to retained profits if required by a specific Standard.

Any retained equity interest in the entity is re-measured at fair value. The difference between the carrying amount of the retained interest at the date when control is lost and its fair value is recognised in profit or loss.

Transactions with non-controlling interests

Changes in the Group's ownership interest in a subsidiary that do not result in a loss of control over the subsidiary are accounted for as transactions with equity owners of the Company. Any difference between the change in the carrying amounts of the non-controlling interest and the fair value of the consideration paid or received is recognised within equity attributable to the equity holders of the Company.

Associated companies

Associated companies are entities over which the Group has significant influence, but not control, generally accompanied by a shareholding giving rise to voting rights of 20% and above, but not exceeding 50%. Investments in associated companies are accounted for in the consolidated financial information using the equity method of accounting less impairment losses.

Equity method of accounting

In applying the equity method of accounting, the Group's share of its associated companies' post-acquisition profits or losses are recognised in profit or loss and its share of post-acquisition other comprehensive income is recognised in other comprehensive income.

These post-acquisition movements and distributions received from the associated companies are adjusted against the carrying amount of the investments. When the Group's share of losses in an associated company equals or exceeds its interest in the associated company, including any other unsecured non-current receivables, the Group does not recognise further losses, unless it has obligations to make or has made payments on behalf of the associated company.

Unrealised gains on transactions between the Group and its associated companies are eliminated to the extent of the Group's interest in the associated companies. Unrealised losses are also eliminated unless the transaction provides evidence of an impairment of the asset transferred. The accounting policies of associated companies have been changed where necessary to ensure consistency with the accounting policies adopted by the Group.

Disposals

Investments in associated companies are derecognised when the Group loses significant influence. Any retained equity interest in the entity is re-measured at its fair value. The difference between the carrying amount of the retained interest at the date when significant influence is lost and its fair value is recognised in profit or loss.

Gains and losses arising from partial disposals or dilutions in investments in associated companies in which significant influence is retained are recognised in profit or loss.

(c) Currency translation – functional and presentation currency

Items included in the financial information of each entity in the Group are measured using the currency of the primary economic environment in which the entity operates ("functional currency"). The usual presentation currency for the Group is Singapore dollars but the financial information is presented in Australian Dollars.

Transactions and balances

Transactions in foreign currencies are initially recorded in the functional currency by applying the exchange rates ruling at the date of the transaction. Monetary assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies are translated at the rate of exchange ruling at the reporting date. Non-monetary items measured at fair values in foreign currencies are translated using the exchange rates at the date when the fair values are determined.

Translation of Group entities' financial information

The results and financial position of all the Group entities (none of which has the currency of a hyperinflationary economy) that have a functional currency different from the presentation currency are translated into the presentation currency as follows:

- Assets and liabilities are translated at the closing exchange rates at the reporting date;
- Income and expenses are translated at average exchange rates (unless the average is not a reasonable approximation of the cumulative effect of the rates prevailing on the transaction dates, in which case income and expenses are translated using the exchange rates at the dates of the transactions); and
- All resulting currency translation differences are recognised in other comprehensive income and accumulated in the currency translation reserve.

Goodwill and fair value adjustments arising on the acquisition of foreign operations are treated as assets and liabilities of the foreign operations and translated at the closing rates at the reporting date.

(d) Investments in subsidiaries and associated companies

Investments in subsidiaries and associated companies are carried at cost less accumulated impairment losses in the Company's statement of financial position. On disposal of investments in subsidiaries and associated companies, the difference between disposal proceeds and the carrying amounts of the investments are recognised in profit or loss.

(e) Impairment of non-financial assets

Assets are tested for impairment whenever there is any objective evidence or indication that these assets may be impaired.

For the purpose of impairment testing, the recoverable amount (i.e. the higher of the fair value less cost to sell and the value-in-use) is determined on an individual asset basis unless the asset does not generate cash inflows that are largely independent of those from other assets. If this is the case, the recoverable amount is determined for the Cash Generating Unit ("CGU") to which the asset belongs. If the recoverable amount of the asset (or CGU) is estimated to be less than its carrying amount, the carrying amount of the asset (or CGU) is reduced to its recoverable amount.

The difference between the carrying amount and recoverable amount is recognised as an impairment loss in profit or loss, unless the asset is carried at revalued amount, in which case, such impairment loss is treated as a revaluation decrease.

An impairment loss for an asset other than goodwill is reversed if, and only if, there has been a change in the estimates used to determine the asset's recoverable amount since the last impairment loss was recognised. The carrying amount of this asset is increased to its revised recoverable amount, provided that this amount does not exceed the carrying amount that would have been determined (net of any accumulated amortisation or depreciation) had no impairment loss been recognised for the asset in prior years.

A reversal of impairment loss for an asset other than goodwill is recognised in profit or loss, unless the asset is carried at revalued amount, in which case, such reversal is treated as a revaluation increase. However, to the extent that an impairment loss on the same revalued asset was previously recognised as an expense, a reversal of that impairment is also credited to profit or loss.

(f) Financial assets

Classification

The Group classifies its financial assets as loans and receivables. Loans and receivables are non-derivative financial assets with fixed or determinable payments that are not quoted in an active market. They are presented as current assets, except for those expected to be realised later than 12 months after the reporting date which are presented as non-current assets. Loans and receivables are presented as “trade and other receivables”, “loans to related parties” and “cash and cash equivalents” on the statement of financial position.

Recognition and de-recognition

Regular purchases and sales of financial assets are recognised on trade-date – the date on which the Group commits to purchase or sell the asset.

Financial assets are derecognised when the rights to receive cash flows from the financial assets have expired or have been transferred and the Group has transferred substantially all risks and rewards of ownership. On disposal of a financial asset, the difference between the carrying amount and the sale proceeds is recognised in profit or loss. Any amount in the other comprehensive income relating to that asset is reclassified to profit or loss.

Trade receivables that are factored out to banks and other financial institutions with recourse to the Group are not derecognised until the recourse period has expired and the risks and rewards of the receivables have been fully transferred. The corresponding cash received from the financial institutions is recorded as borrowings.

Measurement

Financial assets are initially recognised at fair value plus transaction costs.

Loans and receivables are subsequently carried at amortised cost using the effective interest method.

Impairment

The Group assesses at each reporting date whether there is objective evidence that a financial asset or a group of financial assets is impaired and recognises an allowance for impairment when such evidence exists.

An allowance for impairment of loans and receivables including trade and other receivables is recognised when there is objective evidence that the Group will not be able to collect all amounts due according to the original terms of the receivables. Significant financial difficulties of the debtor, probability that the debtor will enter bankruptcy, and default or significant delay in payments are objective evidence that these financial assets are impaired. The amount of the allowance is the difference between the asset's carrying amount and the present value of estimated future cash flows, discounted at the original effective interest rate. The amount of allowance for impairment is recognised in profit or loss.

(g) Critical accounting estimates and judgements

Estimates and judgements are continually evaluated and are based on historical experience and other factors, including expectations of future events that are believed to be reasonable under the circumstances.

The Group makes estimates, assumptions and judgements concerning the future. The resulting accounting estimates will, by definition, seldom equal the related actual results. The estimates, assumptions and judgements that have a significant risk of causing a material adjustment to the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities within the next financial year are discussed below.

Uncertain tax positions

The Group is subject to income taxes in numerous jurisdictions. In determining the income tax liabilities, management is required to estimate the amount of capital allowances and the deductibility of certain expenses (“uncertain tax positions”) at each tax jurisdiction.

Depreciation of property, plant and equipment

Management estimates the useful lives of the property, plant and equipment to be between 1 to 10 years. Changes in the expected level of usage and technological development could impact the economic useful lives and the residual value of these assets, therefore future depreciation charges could be revised.

Impairment of investments in subsidiaries

Investments in subsidiaries are tested for impairment at each reporting date and whenever there is any objective evidence or indication that the investment may be impaired. This determination requires significant judgement. The Group evaluates among other factors, the duration and extent to which the fair value of the investment is less than its cost, the financial health of and near-term business outlook for the subsidiaries. The methodology and assumptions used for estimating the amount and timing of future cash flows are reviewed yearly.

Impairment of investments in associated companies

Investments in associated companies are tested for impairment at each reporting date and whenever there is any objective evidence or indication that the investments may be impaired. This determination requires significant judgement. The Group and the Company evaluates among other factors, the duration and extent to which the fair value of the investments is less than its cost, the financial health of and near-term business outlook for the associated companies.

Impairment of trade and other receivables

Management has reviewed the Group's trade and other receivables at the financial year end to determine whether there is objective evidence that the Group will not be able to collect all amounts due according to the original terms of the receivables.

Deferred income tax assets

The Group recognises deferred income tax assets on carried forward tax losses to the extent there are sufficient estimated future taxable profits and/or taxable temporary differences against which the tax losses can be utilised and that the Group is able to satisfy the continuing ownership test.

(h) Cash and cash equivalents

For the purpose of presentation in the consolidated statement of cash flows, cash and cash equivalents include cash on hand and deposits at call with financial institutions which are readily convertible to cash on hand and subject to an insignificant risk of change in value, net of outstanding bank overdrafts.

(i) Share capital

Ordinary shares are classified as equity. Incremental costs directly attributable to the issuance of new ordinary shares are deducted against the share capital account.

(j) Dividends to Group's shareholders

Dividends to the Group's shareholders are recognised when the dividends are approved for payment.

(k) Operating leases (when the Group is the lessee)

Leases where substantially all risks and rewards incidental to ownership are retained by the lessors are classified as operating leases. Payments made under operating leases (net of any incentives received from the lessors) are recognised in profit or loss on a straight-line basis over the period of the lease.

Contingent rents are recognised as an expense in profit or loss when incurred.

(l) Income tax

The charge for current income tax expenses is based on the profit for the period adjusted for any non-assessable or disallowed items. It is calculated using tax rates that have been enacted or are substantively enacted by the balance sheet date.

Deferred tax is accounted for using the balance sheet liability method in respect of temporary differences arising between the tax bases of assets and liabilities and their carrying amounts in the financial information. No deferred income tax will be recognised from the initial recognition of an asset or liability, excluding a business combination, where there is no effect on accounting or taxable profit or loss.

Deferred tax is calculated at the tax rates that are expected to apply to the period when the asset is realised or liability is settled. Deferred tax is credited in the income statement except where it relates to items that may be credited directly to equity, in which case the deferred tax is adjusted directly against equity. Deferred income tax assets are recognised to the extent that it is probable that the future tax profits will be available against which deductible temporary differences can be utilised.

The amount of benefits brought to account or which may be realised in the future is based on the assumption that no adverse change will occur in income taxation legislation and the anticipation that the economic entity will derive sufficient future assessable income to enable the benefit to be realised and comply with the conditions of deductibility imposed by the law.

(m) Revenue recognition

Revenue comprises the fair value of the consideration received or receivable for the rendering of services in the ordinary course of the Group's activities. Revenue is presented, net of goods and services tax, rebates and discounts, and after eliminating revenue within the Group.

The Group recognises revenue when the amount of revenue and related cost can be reliably measured, when it is probable that the collectability of the related receivables is reasonably assured and when the specific criteria for each of the Group's activities are met. Revenue is recognised as follows:

Rendering of services

Services with advertising Advertisers are campaign based and revenue as well as the cost of sales (blogger costs) are recognised on a percentage of completion basis over the period of the campaign.

Interest income

Interest income is recognised on a time-proportion basis using the effective interest method.

Dividend income

Dividend income is recognised when the right to receive payment is established.

(n) Property, plant and equipment

All property, plant and equipment are initially recognised at cost and subsequently carried at cost less accumulated depreciation and accumulated impairment losses.

The cost of an item of property, plant and equipment initially recognised includes its purchase price and any cost that is directly attributable to bringing the asset to the location and condition necessary for it to be capable of operating in the manner intended by management. Cost also includes borrowing costs that are directly attributable to the acquisition, construction or production of a qualifying asset.

Depreciation

Depreciation on property, plant and equipment is calculated using the straight-line method to allocate their depreciable amounts over their estimated useful lives as follows:

	Useful lives
Computer equipment	1 - 5 years
Furniture and fittings	1 - 10 years
Office equipment	1 - 10 years
Production equipment	3 years
Motor vehicles	5 years

The residual values, estimated useful lives and depreciation method of property, plant and equipment are reviewed, and adjusted as appropriate, at each reporting date. The effects of any revision are recognised in profit or loss when the changes arise.

Fully depreciated assets are retained in the financial information until they are no longer in use and no further charge for depreciation is made in respect of these assets.

Subsequent expenditure

Subsequent expenditure relating to property, plant and equipment that has already been recognised is added to the carrying amount of the asset only when it is probable that future economic benefits associated with the item will flow to the Group and the cost of the item can be measured reliably. All other repair and maintenance expenses are recognised in profit or loss when incurred.

Disposal

On disposal of an item of property, plant and equipment, the difference between the disposal proceeds and its carrying amount is recognised in profit or loss. Any amount in revaluation reserve relating to that asset is transferred to retained earnings directly.

(o) Employee BenefitsShort-term employee benefits

Provision is made for the company's obligation for short-term employee benefits. Short-term employee benefits are benefits (other than termination benefits) that are expected to be settled wholly before 12 months after the end of the annual reporting period in which the employees render the related service, including wages and salaries. Short-term employee benefits are measured at the (undiscounted) amounts expected to be paid when the obligation is settled.

The company's obligations for short-term employee benefits such as wages and salaries are recognised as a part of current trade and other payables in the statement of financial position.

Other long-term employee benefits

Provision is made for employees' long service leave and annual leave entitlements not expected to be settled wholly within 12 months after the end of the annual reporting period in which the employees render the related service. Other long-term employee benefits are measured at the present value of the expected future payments to be made to employees. Expected future payments incorporate anticipated future wage and salary levels, durations of service and employee departures and are discounted at rates determined by reference to market yields at the end of the reporting period on government bonds that have maturity dates that approximate the terms of the obligations. Upon the re-measurement of obligations for other long-term employee benefits, the net change in the obligation is recognised in profit or loss as a part of employee benefits expense.

The company's obligations for long term-employee benefits are presented as non-current provisions in its statement of financial position, except where the company does not have an unconditional right to defer settlement for at least 12 months after the end of the reporting period, in which case the obligations are presented as current provisions.

Defined contribution plans

Defined contribution plans are post-employment benefit plans under which the Group pays fixed contributions into separate entities on a mandatory, contractual or voluntary basis. The Group has no further payment obligations once the contributions have been paid.

(p) Impairment of Assets

At each reporting date, the consolidated entity reviews the carrying values of its tangible assets to determine whether there is any indication that those assets have been impaired. If such an indication exists, the recoverable amount of the asset, being the higher of the assets fair value less costs to sell and value in use, is compared to the asset's carrying value. Any excess of the asset's carrying value over its recoverable amount is expensed to the income statement.

The expected net cash flows included in determining recoverable amounts of non-current assets are not discounted to their present values.

(q) Provisions

Provisions are recognised when the consolidated entity has a legal or constructive obligation, as a result of past events, for which it is probable that an outflow of economic benefits will result and that outflow can be reliably measured. Provisions are measured using the best estimate of the amounts required to settle the obligation at the end of the reporting period.

(r) Trade and other creditors

These amounts represent liabilities for goods and services provided to the consolidated entity prior to the end of the financial year and which are unpaid. The amounts are unsecured and are usually paid within 30 days of recognition.

The pro-forma historical financial information has been derived from the historical financial information of Netccentric and Ripplewerkz, after adjusting for the effects of pro-forma adjustments described in section 5 of the Prospectus. The stated basis of preparation is the recognition and measurement principles contained in Australian Accounting Standards applied to the historical financial information and the transactions to which the pro-forma adjustments relate, as described in section 5 of the Prospectus, as if those transactions had occurred as at the date of the historical financial information. Our Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express a limited assurance conclusion on the financial information based on the procedures performed and the evidence we have obtained. We have conducted our engagement in accordance with the Standard on Assurance Engagement ASAE 3450 Assurance Engagements involving Corporate Fundraisings and/or Prospective Financial Information.

We made such enquiries, primarily of persons responsible for financial and accounting matters, and performed such procedures as we, in our professional judgment, considered reasonable in the circumstances including:

- a consistency check of the application of the stated basis of preparation, to the historical and pro-forma historical financial information;
- a review of Netccentric and Ripplewerkz's work papers, accounting records and other documents;
- enquiry of directors, management personnel and advisors;
- consideration of the pro-forma adjustments described in section 5 of the Prospectus; and
- the performance of analytical procedures applied to the historical and pro-forma historical financial information.

A review is substantially less in scope than an audit conducted in accordance with Australian Auditing Standards and consequently does not enable us to obtain reasonable assurance that we would become aware of all significant matters that might be identified in an audit. Accordingly, we do not express an audit opinion.

SECTION 6

Risk Factors

The Shares are considered highly speculative. An investment in the Company is not risk free and the Directors strongly recommend that potential investors consider the risks factors described below, together with information contained elsewhere in this Prospectus, and consult their professional advisors before deciding whether to apply for Shares under this Prospectus.

The proposed future activities of the Company are subject to a number of risks and other factors which may impact its future performance. Some of these risks can be mitigated by the use of safeguards and appropriate controls. However, many of the risks are outside the control of the Company and cannot be mitigated.

Investors should be aware that the performance of the Company may be affected and the value of its Shares may rise or fall over any given period. Some of the factors which investors should consider before they make a decision whether or not to take up their entitlement include, but are not limited to, the risks in this Section.

6.1 COMPANY SPECIFIC RISKS

The business, assets and operations of Netccentric are subject to certain risk factors that have the potential to influence future operating and financial performance. These risks may have an impact on the value of an investment in Netccentric's shares.

The Board aims to manage these risks by carefully planning its activities and implementing mitigating risk control measures. Some risks are unforeseeable and so the extent to which these risks can be effectively managed is somewhat limited.

Set out below are specific key risks to which the Company is exposed. Further general risks associated with an investment in Netccentric are outlined in Section 6.2.

(a) Failure to retain existing clients and attract new ones

Netccentric relies on the revenue generated from its clients across its six businesses. There is a risk that clients paying a retainer fee could cease their contracts and the business could fail to attract further clients on both a project and retained basis.

(b) Failure to expand into new markets

There is the risk that the Company does not fulfil its expansion strategy to expand the business into new markets. This could be due to factors relating to the economy or a failure on the Company's part to execute the strategy as expected. In this case the Company's ability to increase its market share and revenues could be halted and it may have to look elsewhere to achieve growth.

(c) Technology risk

If Netccentric's technology network is compromised for any reason or Netccentric's infrastructure and systems prove insufficient and unable to keep up with evolving technologies, Netccentric's ability to reliably service its clients and remain competitive may be compromised, which in turn may adversely impact on the Company's future financial performance.

If Netccentric's systems or data is compromised for any reason there is a risk that the Company may become embroiled in legal action due to breaching data confidentiality agreements.

(d) Industry and competition

Netccentric's competition may include businesses with much higher capitalisation and substantially greater resources. These competitors may succeed in developing products and services, which are either superior or additional to Netccentric's, resulting in the migration of existing clients and potential clients to a competitor's business. Competitors with increased access to capital could lead to Netccentric's business becoming uncompetitive on price or in the event of pricing competition could lead to Netccentric reducing gross margins and loss of market share, both of which could adversely effect the Company's future business and financial position.

A number of third-party competitors are currently offering services similar to Netccentric's Offerings. Existing competitors, as well as new competitors entering the industry, may engage in aggressive Advertiser acquisition campaigns, develop superior technology offerings or consolidate with other entities to deliver enhanced scale benefits, which may materially erode Netccentric's market share and revenue, and may materially adversely impact the Company's financial performance.

In addition, there is a risk that existing Advertisers may shift away from outsourcing certain or all functions to Netccentric and seek to provide these services in-house. Netccentric's Advertisers include large, blue-chip businesses, such as trading banks and large telecommunication providers, with significant capital to invest in internally developing their businesses and platforms. This may materially adversely impact Netccentric's revenue and profitability.

(e) Regulatory risks

Netccentric operates in a wide range of jurisdictions, and is subject to a range of legal, tax and industry compliance requirements that are constantly changing. There is a risk that any new or changed regulations or compliance criteria could result in Netccentric failing to comply in some respect or require Netccentric to increase its spending on regulatory or industry compliance, making it less competitive.

There is also a risk that if Netccentric fails to comply with these laws, regulations and industry compliance standards, this may result in significantly increased compliance costs; cessation of certain business activities or the ability to conduct business in certain geographies; increased complexity for new Advertiser registrations; increased requirements in relation to the verification of Advertisers; forfeiture of assets; criminal and civil litigation; and significant reputational damage. All of these may have a materially adverse impact on Netccentric's revenue and profitability.

(f) Reliance on other social media platforms

Netccentric relies on selling the inventory of its Publishers on external social media platforms. Any technical or legal disruption to the ability to sell on these social media platforms could affect the Company's ability to achieve its objectives.

(g) Loss of Publishers

Netccentric's relationship with a wide range of content providers and copyright collections, including its exclusive contracts with over 200 influential Publishers, are a key contributor to the success of the business. The loss or deterioration of these relationships with content providers or an inability to renew contractual arrangements with such parties or negotiate agreements with new parties on terms which are materially less favourable than those under existing arrangements, is likely to have an adverse effect on future financial performance.

Although Netccentric typically enters into exclusive contracts with influential Publishers, exclusivity arrangements may be difficult to enforce and there is no guarantee that enforcement action will result in a favourable outcome for the Company.

(h) Control by Existing Shareholders and liquidity of Shares

After the Offer is completed, the Existing Shareholders will hold approximately 73% to 81% of the total Shares on issue, and will continue to be able to exert significant influence over the Company, including in relation to the election of Directors, the appointment of new management and the potential outcome of matters submitted to the vote of Shareholders. There is a risk that the interests of the Existing Shareholders may be different from the interests of investors who purchase Shares under the Offer, particularly given their Shares were acquired prior to completion of the Offer and at different prices to the Offer Price. There is also a risk that the continued shareholding of the Existing Shareholders, in particular until the end of the escrow period, may cause or contribute to a limited liquidity in the market for Shares, which could affect the market price at which other Shareholders are able to sell. All of the Shares held by Existing Shareholders post Offer will be subject to voluntary escrow. Refer to Section 7.3 for the details of restriction arrangements.

In addition, there is a future dilution risk to minority Shareholders should the Company seek to raise further equity in accordance with its prospective business objectives. This risk arises particularly if Existing Shareholders elect to participate in future Shares issues and minority Shareholders are unwilling or unable to participate in those capital raisings. This would result in additional Shares being issued to the Existing Shareholders and the minority Shareholders being further diluted.

(i) Prevalence of related party leases

Netccentric Group companies lease the majority of its premises in Singapore and Malaysia from related parties of the Existing Shareholders. There is a risk that those leases may not be negotiated on arms' length terms, although the Company believes that those leases are on normal commercial terms. Should a breakdown of these relationships occur, these Netccentric Group companies may be required to change premises which may disrupt the Netccentric Group company operations. Any new leases may be on different or less favourable terms to the Company.

(j) Joint venture arrangements risk

Netccentric operates its businesses in the Philippines, Australia, China, Thailand and the UK through joint venture arrangements with a local entity or entities. In addition, its Reelity. TV and Sashimi businesses are conducted in joint ventures. In the case of the Philippines, Netccentric holds less than 50% of the voting equity in the joint venture.

These joint ventures have benefits for the Company but also carry greater risk than entities which are wholly owned by Netccentric.

The key risks relate to the Company's level of control over the joint ventures and the Company's dependence on the relationship with, and conduct of, the joint venture counterparties. Although there are agreements in place with the key joint venture counterparties, these agreements do not guarantee performance by the joint venture counterparties and may not give the Company an adequate remedy in all cases.

Some other risks Netccentric may face from operating in joint venture jurisdictions include but are not limited to:

- (i) imposition of restrictions on foreign ownership and control of assets requiring the divestment of Netccentric's interest in the joint venture;
- (ii) nationalisation or confiscation of assets with or without compensation;
- (iii) imposition of selective taxation regimes on foreign corporations; and
- (iv) imposition of selective taxation regimes on business sectors.

(k) Capital required for expansion

Netccentric may at some point in the future require additional funding for expansion. There is no guarantee that this funding will be available on terms favourable to Netccentric, or at all, at that time. This may adversely affect Netccentric's future expansion or growth objectives.

(l) System and content integrity

The performance of Netccentric's websites is important to the reputation of the Company's business, and its ability to attract Advertisers and ability to deliver and track advertising. Any system failure that causes an interruption to Netccentric's services could materially affect its business. System failures, if prolonged may reduce the attractiveness of Netccentric's services to clients and visitors to the websites and may damage its brand reputation and goodwill.

(m) Decline in general advertising spend in key markets

The general state of the advertising spend in Australia, Singapore, Thailand, Philippines, Malaysia, China and the United Kingdom are subject to the factors outside the control of Netccentric. Should growth in these markets slow, or the markets contract, this will negatively impact Netccentric's ability to meet its objectives.

Netccentric is exposed to fluctuations in the level of advertising expenditure as, consistent with industry practice, it does not have formal, signed agreements with its advertisers. Instead, Netccentric relies on continuing relationships with agencies and direct advertisers, which limit its ability to prevent advertisers from decreasing or cancelling their advertising arrangements.

If there is a decline in the overall economic environment, or deterioration in the individual circumstances of advertisers, advertisers may reduce their level of advertising expenditure. Any decline in advertising revenues may have a material adverse effect on Netccentric's business and financial performance.

(n) Decline in growth of Internet penetration and usage

Internet penetration in Australia, Singapore, Thailand, Philippines, Malaysia, China and the United Kingdom has been growing. In addition, growth in online advertising is underpinned by a range of factors including migration from more traditional forms of media. There can be no guarantee that this growth will continue in the future. If Internet penetration and advertising migration does not continue to grow this may have an adverse effect on Netccentric's growth plan.

(o) Employee recruitment risk and retention

Netccentric's ability to effectively execute its growth strategy depends upon the performance and expertise of its staff. Netccentric relies on experienced managerial and highly qualified staff to develop new Offerings, operate its technology platform and to direct operational staff to manage the operational, sales, compliance and other functions of its business.

There is a risk that Netccentric is unable to recruit talented staff in a timeframe that meets the growth objectives of Netccentric resulting in delays in the development of new technology or expansion into new geographies. This would adversely impact Netccentric's revenue and profitability. The success of the business to date has been significantly reliant on the Senior Management team's ability and knowledge of the digital marketing sector. While the Company strives to retain its key personnel, there is always the possibility that employees will leave the business, the event of which could adversely impact the businesses operations and ability to implement its growth strategy.

There is also a risk that Netccentric will be unable to recruit new staff on terms of retention that are as attractive to Netccentric as past agreements. This would adversely impact employment costs and profitability.

(p) Protection of intellectual property

Netccentric relies on laws relating to patents, trade secrets, copyright and trademarks to assist to protect its proprietary rights. However there is a risk that unauthorised use or copying of Netccentric's software, data, specialised technology or platforms will occur.

There is a risk that the validity, ownership or authorised use of intellectual property relevant to Netccentric's business will be successfully challenged by third parties. In addition, there is a risk that Advertisers exercise their stand-in rights in the event Netccentric fails to perform under the terms of a contract.

There is also a risk that Netccentric will be unable to register or otherwise protect new intellectual property it develops in the future. Competitors may be able to work around any of the patents and patent applications or other intellectual property rights used by the Company, or independently develop technologies or competing electronic products or services that are not covered by Netccentric's patents, patent applications or other intellectual property rights. This may materially adversely impact Netccentric's revenue, legal expenses and profitability.

(q) Netccentric's Offerings may be superseded by other technology or changes in business practice

Netccentric's success will in part depend on its ability to offer services and systems that keep pace with the continuing changes in technology, evolving industry standards and changing consumer preferences. There is a risk that Netccentric will not be successful in addressing these developments in a timely manner. In addition, there is a risk that new products or technologies (or alternative distribution systems) developed by third parties will supersede Netccentric's Offerings.

(r) New services or the expansion in new markets and Advertisers may not perform as intended Netccentric may introduce new Offerings or expand into new geographical markets beyond FY2015. These initiatives may result in unforeseen costs or risks, may not deliver positive outcomes as intended, and may materially adversely impact Netccentric's future financial performance.

There is a risk that Advertisers may choose not to adopt the new Offerings. There is also a risk that Netccentric's expected ability to expand through leveraging the expanding relationships from its existing Advertisers and Publishers may not eventuate as intended. This may materially adversely impact Netccentric's revenue and profitability.

(s) Exposure to potential security breaches

Cyber-attacks may compromise or breach the technology platform used by Netccentric to protect confidential information and conduct business. There is a risk that the measures taken by Netccentric will not be sufficient to detect or prevent unauthorised access to, or disclosure of, such confidential information. Any data security breaches or Netccentric's failure to protect confidential information could result in the loss of information integrity or breaches of Netccentric's obligations under applicable laws or Advertiser agreements, each of which may materially adversely impact the Company's financial performance and reputation.

(t) Speculative Investment

The above list of risk factors ought not to be taken as exhaustive of the risks faced by the Company or the Netccentric businesses, or by investors in the Company. The above risk factors, and others not specifically referred to above, may materially affect the future financial performance of Company and the value of the Shares offered under this Prospectus.

Therefore, the new Shares to be issued pursuant to this Prospectus carry no guarantee with respect to the payment of dividends, returns of capital or market value. The Company does not expect to declare any dividends in the foreseeable future. Potential investors should consider that the investment in the Company is highly speculative and should consult their professional advisors before deciding whether to apply for new Shares pursuant to this Prospectus.

(u) Failure to increase revenues per client

The Company may be unable to increase its revenues through organic growth and external growth if it is unable to introduce further product offerings as planned. The Company's ability to increase its revenues is reliant upon the introduction of both new revenue streams and increased Advertisers across its revenue streams. Even if the Company successfully launches new product offerings there is still an inherent risk that the Company cannot attract new Advertisers to purchase these offerings.

(v) Decline in economic conditions in key geographical markets

Netccentric operates primarily in the APAC. Any downturn in APAC could have a negative impact on the business' operations. The advertising industry is highly cyclical and often companies experiencing a downturn choose to make reductions to their marketing budgets above other expenses. In that event Netccentric's revenues would be impacted if its clients began to cut their marketing activities and contracts with Netccentric.

(w) Unforeseen expenditure risk

Expenditure may be incurred in the future that has not been taken into account ahead of the issuing of this Prospectus. If further expenditure is incurred this may adversely impact the Company's budget proposals and ability to generate a profit. The Company is not currently aware of any such additional expenditure requirements.

(x) Damage to brand or reputation

The reputation and brand of Netccentric has become of key importance in attracting new Advertisers and Publishers. Failure to provide Advertisers with the quality service and standards they have come to expect and any disputes or litigation with third parties or negative media coverage could have a harmful effect on the reputation and brand of Netccentric.

(y) Movements in exchange rates

Netccentric derives 86% of revenue and a significant proportion of its costs from its activities in geographies outside Australia including Singapore, Thailand, Malaysia, Philippines, China and UK. Accordingly, Netccentric's Australian denominated results are exposed to exchange rate fluctuations with respect to the currencies of those nations. Those exposures may change over time as business practices evolve, and they could have a material adverse impact on Netccentric's Australian dollar-denominated financial results and cash flows.

6.2 RISKS ARISING FROM THE COMPANY'S JURISDICTION OF INCORPORATION AND REGISTRATION

(a) Corporate law environment

As a company incorporated in Singapore, the Company is not subject to many provisions of the Corporations Act. It will however be subject to the Listing Rules, upon listing on the ASX. The Companies Act does not provide the same level of shareholder protections as the Corporations Act. For example, Shareholders will not be afforded the same takeover protection provisions contained in Chapter 6 of the Corporations Act. Refer to Section 7.9 for a summary of the key differences between Singaporean and Australian company law.

(b) Tax environment

Should there be any changes in Singaporean tax law, in particular, if Singapore imposes a dividend tax regime, this could have an adverse cash impact on Shareholders.

(c) Sovereign risk

There are sovereign risks that relate to Netccentric operating in the various overseas markets including but not limited to China, Philippines and Thailand. (i) Philippines

Under a Joint Venture Agreement (“Philippines JVA”) dated 23 September 2008 Netccentric and Outcomm Inc (“Outcomm”) have agreed to form a joint venture limited liability corporation, Nuffnang Philippines Inc (“Nuffnang Philippines”), under the laws of the Republic of the Philippines, which will engage in the construction, operation, maintenance and marketing of the Philippines Blog Ad Network in the Philippines.

Philabs Inc (Philabs) has acquired Outcomm’s share and succeeded Outcomm under the Philippines JVA.

The Philippines JVA provides that if either party desires to sell all or part of its interest in the joint venture, the other party will have the right to purchase the selling party’s interest in the joint venture at the purchase price contained in any proposed contract of sale and on the terms and conditions of such proposed contract, or to require the third party to likewise purchase the other party's interest in the joint venture also at the purchase price contained in the proposed contract of sale and on the terms and conditions of the proposed contract.

If Netccentric sells more than 50% of its regional operations, Netccentric may require Philabs to sell its entire stake ("Drag Along") in Nuffnang Philippines, provided that the Drag Along stake results in net proceeds to Philabs of a minimum of USD$1,000,000. The Drag Along stake must be valued on the same basis as Netccentric's regional operations. In addition, Philabs may require Netccentric to require the buyer to acquire Philab's entire stake in Nuffnang Philippines on terms and conditions mutually agreed between the buyer and Philabs.

The Philippines JVA also provides that in the event that there is a change in control of Philabs where more than 50% of Philabs is sold to a third party, which sale includes Philab's stake in Nuffnang Philippines, Netccentric will have the right to acquire Philab's shareholding in Nuffnang Philippines at terms and conditions equal to the third party offer for Philab's stake in Nuffnang Philippines.

The Philippines JVA also provides for reserved matters, where the affirmative vote of at least three (3) directors, one of whom must be a director of Netccentric, shall be required prior to the following:

- any increase, decrease, consolidation, or sub-division in the authorised or issued share capital, creation or issuance of a new class of shares, bonds or any other securities carrying rights to subscribe for or purchase any shares in Nuffnang Philippines;

Each of the parties agrees, and undertakes to cause its affiliates, subsidiaries, affiliated companies, directors, corporate officers, shareholders and any other company or firm, in which any of the foregoing is an owner, employee, partner, agent, shareholder, director, officer, or consultant, not to engage, directly or indirectly, or have an interest or become a director, officer, shareholder, partner, consultant, employee in a business involving the Philippine Blog Ad Network or business which is competing with Nuffnang Philippines in, or affecting similar business within, the Philippines, without the prior written consent of the other party.

The Company has entered into sale and purchase agreements with shareholders ("Vendors") of the following companies:

- Nuffnang Sdn Bhd;
- Nuffnang Pte Ltd; and
- RippleWerkz Private Limited.

The completion of these agreements will result in the Company becoming the 100% shareholder of these Netccentric Group companies.

The Company will acquire Tiah Ewe Tiam's and Tong Kok Chiang's (Cheo Ming Shen's step-father's) respective one share in Nuffnang Sdn Bhd and Nuffnang Pte Ltd as part of the acquisition of the relevant minority interests in Nuffnang Sdn Bhd and Nuffnang Pte Ltd respectively.

The purchase price under these agreements will be satisfied by the issue of Shares ("Consideration Shares") to each Vendor based on the valuation agreed between the parties for the Vendor's shares and a value for the Shares equal to the Offer Price. The agreement is conditional upon the conditional approval of the ASX to the quoting and listing of the Shares on the ASX.

The Company intends to complete the acquisition of each Vendor's Shares before Admission or as soon as reasonably practicable after the Official Quotation of the Shares, and will apply for the quotation of the Consideration Shares.

The total number of Shares to be issued to acquire all of the Vendor's Shares under the sale and purchase agreements will be approximately 7,556,872 Shares.

7.6 RIGHTS ATTACHING TO SHARES

A summary of the rights attaching to the Shares under the Offer is detailed below. This summary is qualified by the full terms of the Articles (a full copy of the Articles is available from the Company on request free of charge) and does not purport to be exhaustive or to constitute a definitive statement of the rights and liabilities of Shareholders. These rights and liabilities can involve complex questions of law arising from an interaction of the Articles with statutory and common law requirements. For a Shareholder to obtain a definitive assessment of the rights and liabilities which attach to the Shares in any specific circumstances, the Shareholder should seek legal advice.

(a) Voting

At a General Meeting, every Shareholder present in person or by proxy, representative or attorney has one vote on a show of hands and, on a poll, one vote for each Share held. As detailed in Section 7.7, holders of CDIs can attend but cannot vote in person at a general meeting, and must instead direct CDN how to vote in advance of the meeting. Any notice of meeting issued to CDI Holders will include a form permitting the holder to direct CDN to cast proxy votes in accordance with the holder's written instructions.

(b) Meetings

Subject to the provisions of the Companies Act, the Company is required to give Shareholders at least 14 days' notice of a meeting of Shareholders. Each Shareholder is entitled to receive notice of, attend and vote at general meetings of the Company and to receive all notices, accounts and other documents required to be sent to Shareholders under the Companies Act, Articles and Listing Rules. As noted above, CDI Holders may only exercise their vote by directing CDN accordingly.

Under the Companies Act, members of the Company holding not less than 10% of such of the paid-up capital of the Company as carries voting rights have a right to requisition the Directors to call for a General Meeting of the Company. Two or more members holding not less than 10% of the issued shares of the Company are also entitled to call for a General Meeting of the Company without requisitioning the Directors to do so.

(c) Dividends

The Board may from time to time resolve to pay dividends to Shareholders and fix the amount of the dividend, the time for determining entitlements to the dividend and the timing and method of payment.

(d) Transfer of Shares

Subject to the Articles, Companies Act, Listing Rules and ASX Settlement Rules, Shares may be transferred by a proper transfer effected in accordance with ASX Settlement Rules, by a written instrument of transfer which complies with the Articles or by any other method permitted by the Companies Act, Listing Rules or ASX Settlement Rules.

The Board may refuse to register a transfer of Shares where permitted to do so under the Articles, Listing Rules or ASX Settlement Rules. The Board must not refuse to register a transfer of CDIs when required by the Listing Rules or ASX Settlement Rules.

(e) Issue of further Shares

Subject to the Companies Act and Listing Rules, the Company may issue further shares on such terms and conditions as the Board resolves, under a general, wide-ranging mandate customarily given by Shareholders at each annual general meeting of the Company.

(f) Purchase of own Shares

Subject to the Companies Act, the Company may purchase or otherwise acquire its own shares upon such terms and subject to such conditions as the Company may deem fit.

(g) Winding Up

If the Company is wound up, then subject to a special resolution of the Shareholders, any surplus must be divided amongst the Company's members as determined by the liquidator.

(h) Unmarketable parcels

Subject to the Articles, Listing Rules and ASX Settlement Rules, the Company may sell the Shares of a Shareholder who holds less than a marketable parcel of Shares under an 'opt-out' procedure.

(i) Variation of rights

At present, the Company's only class of shares on issue is ordinary shares. Subject to the Articles, the Companies Act, Listing Rules, and the terms of issue of a class of shares, the rights attaching to any class of shares may be varied or cancelled:

- (i) by a special resolution of the issued shares included in that class; or
- (ii) by a special resolution passed at a separate meeting of the holders of those shares.

(j) Directors – appointment and removal

The minimum number of Directors is one and the maximum is 6. Currently, there are five Directors.

At the first annual General Meeting all Directors shall retire from office, and at subsequent annual General Meetings, one-third of the Directors for the time being, or, if their number is not three or a multiple of three, then the number nearest one-third, shall retire.

A retiring Director is eligible for re-election. The Directors may appoint a Director either in addition to existing Directors or to fill a casual vacancy, who then holds office until the next annual General Meeting. The Company may elect a person as a Director by resolution passed at a General Meeting. A Director elected at a General Meeting is taken to have been elected with effect immediately after the end of that General Meeting unless the resolution by which the Director was appointed or elected specifies a different time.

(k) Directors – remuneration

The Articles provide that non-executive Directors are entitled to such Directors' fees as determined by the Directors but which must not exceed in aggregate AUD$300,000 per annum or such other maximum amount determined by Shareholders at a General Meeting.

This limit does not apply to the salary and other remuneration of Executive Directors.

(l) Indemnities

- (i) The Company, to the extent permitted by law, indemnifies each Director against any liability (other than legal costs) incurred in acting as Director, other than:
 - (a) a liability owed to the Company or a Related Body Corporate;
 - (b) a liability for a pecuniary penalty order under the Companies Act; or
 - (c) a liability that did not arise out of conduct in good faith.
- (ii) The Company, to the extent permitted by law, indemnifies each Director for costs and expenses incurred in defending an action for liability incurred in acting as Director, except for legal costs incurred:
 - (a) in defending or resisting any proceedings in which the Director is found to have a liability for which they cannot be indemnified under (i) above;
 - (b) in defending or resisting criminal proceedings in which the Director is found guilty;
 - (c) in defending or resisting proceedings brought by the ACRA or equivalent regulator in any other jurisdiction or by a liquidator for a court order if the grounds for making the order are found by the court to be established, except for costs incurred in responding to actions taken by the ACRA or equivalent regulator in any other jurisdiction or a liquidator as part of an investigation before commencing proceedings for the court order; or
 - (d) in connection with proceedings for relief to the Director under the Companies Act in which the relief is denied by the court.

(m) Litigation

Under the Companies Act as well as at common law, a member of the Company is entitled, subject to the fulfilment of various pre-conditions, to bring or intervene in legal proceedings on behalf of the Company.

(n) Alteration to the Articles

The Articles can only be amended by a special resolution passed by at least 75% of the Company's members present and voting at a General Meeting.

(o) Transactions requiring shareholder approval

The types of "transactions" that require shareholder approval are governed by the Companies Act and the Articles.

Generally speaking, the following types of transactions will require shareholder approval:

- (i) amendments to the Articles;
- (ii) amalgamations;
- (iii) disposing of substantially the whole of the company's property or undertaking;
- (iv) change of name of the company;
- (v) reduction of share capital;
- (vi) winding up;
- (vii) share buy-back;
- (viii) removal of company auditors; and
- (ix) certain alteration of capital and variations of rights attaching to Shares.

This is not an exhaustive list but sets out common transactions which require shareholder approval.

7.7 RIGHTS OF CDI HOLDERS

With the exception of voting rights, CDI Holders have the equivalent rights as holders whose shares are legally registered in their own name. The ASX Settlement Rules require that all economic benefits, such as dividends, bonus issues, rights issues or similar corporate actions flow through to CDI Holders as if they were the legal owners of the underlying shares. However, in some cases, marginal difference may exist between the resulting entitlements of CDI Holders and the entitlements they would have accrued if they held Shares directly. This is because, for the purposes of certain corporate actions, CDN's holding of Shares is, for Singaporean legal reasons, treated as a single holding, rather than as a number of smaller separate holdings corresponding to the individual interests of CDI Holders (thus, for example, CDI Holders will not benefit to the same extent from the rounding up of fractional entitlements as if they held Shares directly).

The ASX Settlement Rules require the Company to give notices to CDI Holders of general meetings of Shareholders. The notice of meeting must include a form permitting the CDI Holder to direct CDN how to vote on a particular resolution, in accordance with the CDI Holder's written directions. CDN is then obliged under the ASX Settlement Rules to lodge proxy votes in accordance with the directions of CDI Holders. CDI Holders cannot vote personally at Shareholder meetings. The CDI Holder must convert their CDIs into certificated Shares prior to the relevant meeting in order to vote in person at the meeting.

If a takeover bid or similar transaction is made in relation to the Shares of which CDN is the registered holder, the ASX Settlement Rules require that CDN must not accept the offer made under the takeover bid except to the extent that acceptance is authorised by the relevant CDI Holder. In these circumstances, CDN must ensure that the offeror, pursuant to the takeover bid, processes the takeover acceptance.

7.8 CONVERTING FROM A CDI TO A SHARE

CDI Holders may at any time convert their holding of CDIs (tradeable on ASX) to certificated Shares by:

- (a) in the case of CDI's held through the issuer sponsored sub-register, contacting Company's Share Registry directly to obtain the applicable request form; or
- (b) in the case of CDIs held on the CHESS sub-register, contacting their controlling participant (generally a stockbroker), who will liaise with the Company's Share Registry to obtain and complete the request form.

Upon receipt of a request form, the relevant number of CDIs will be cancelled and Shares will be transferred from CDN into the name of the CDI Holder and a registered share certificate be issued. This will cause your Shares to be registered on the certificated register of Shareholders and trading will no longer be possible on ASX.

A holder of Shares may also convert their Shares to CDIs, by contacting the Agent for service of process and ASX communications officer on +61 2 9299 9690, or their stockbroker (or applicable controlling participant). In this case, the Shares will be transferred from the Shareholder's name into the name of CDN and a holding statement will be issued to the person who converted their Shares to CDIs in respect of the CDIs that have been issued. The CDIs will be tradeable on ASX.

7.9 KEY DIFFERENCES BETWEEN SINGAPOREAN AND AUSTRALIAN COMPANY LAW

As the Company is not incorporated in Australia, its general corporate activities (apart from any offering of Shares in Australia) are not regulated by the Corporations Act or by ASIC but instead are regulated by the Companies Act and ACRA.

This is a general description of the principal differences between the laws and regulations concerning shares in a company incorporated in Singapore as opposed to Australia. It is provided as a general guide only and does not purport to be a comprehensive analysis of all the consequences resulting from acquiring, holding or disposing of such shares or interest in such shares. The laws, regulations, policies and procedures described are subject to change from time to time.

(a) Corporate procedures

In Singapore, the regulation of companies is generally governed by the Companies Act.

The general company law structure of Singapore and Australia is reasonably similar, being based in legislation with a common law background of directors' duties. As with Australian company law, a limited liability company incorporated under the Companies Act in Singapore will be a separate legal entity from its shareholders. Further, certain corporate procedures require approval by a special resolution of shareholders under Singapore law including a change of company name, alteration of the Articles, and approval of capital reductions.

(b) Takeovers

In Australia, the Corporations Act governs a takeover. The Corporations Act contains a general rule that a person must not acquire a Relevant Interest in issued voting shares of a company if, because of the transaction, a person's voting power in the company:

- (i) increases from 20% or below to more than 20%; or
- (ii) increases from a starting point, which is above 20% but less than 90%.

Certain exceptions apply, such as acquisitions of Relevant Interests in voting shares made under takeover bids or made with shareholder approval, or creeping acquisitions of 3% per 6 months.

Australian law permits compulsory acquisition by 90% holders.

Under Singaporean law, the Securities and Futures Act (Chapter 289) of Singapore and the Singapore Code on Takeovers and Mergers govern a takeover. The threshold above which acquisition by a person, together with parties acting in concert with it, will trigger a mandatory offer is 30%. This is higher than the 20% threshold which applies to Australian public companies.

Subject to the exceptions noted below, a person (and in certain circumstances, persons acting in concert with that person) will be required to make a general offer for all of the shares in a company covered under the Singapore Code on Takeovers and Mergers if:

- (i) such person acquires shares which (taken together with shares held or acquired by persons acting in concert with it) carry 30% or more of the voting rights of the company; or
- (ii) where such person and persons acting in concert with it hold not less than 30% but not more than 50% of the voting rights in such company and the person (or its concert party) acquires in any period of 6 months additional shares carrying more than 1% of the voting rights.

Where, as a result of the issue of new shares as consideration for an acquisition, a cash subscription or the fulfilment of obligations under an agreement to underwrite the issue of new shares, a person or its concert parties acquire shares which give rise to an obligation to make a general offer, the Securities Industry Council of Singapore may waive such obligation subject to the fulfilment of certain conditions, including the approval of a majority of shareholders of the company by way of a poll at a general meeting to waive their rights to receive a general offer.

A person who (together with its concert parties) already holds more than 50% of the voting rights in the company is not restricted from making further acquisitions above that level, and is not normally obliged to make a general offer as a result of making any such further acquisitions. However in the case of members of a group acting in concert, subject to certain conditions, the Securities Industry Council of Singapore may regard as giving rise to an obligation to make an offer of acquisition by a single member or sub-group of the group of voting rights sufficient to increase their holdings to 30% or more or, if they already hold between 30% and 50%, by more than 1% in any six month period.

(c) Substantial shareholders reporting

Under Australian law, a shareholder who begins to or ceases to have a "substantial holding" in a listed company, or has a substantial holding in a listed company and there is a movement of at least 1% in their holding, must give notice to the company and to the ASX. A person has a substantial holding if that person and that person's associates have a Relevant Interest in 5% or more of the voting shares in the company.

Under Singaporean law, substantial shareholder reporting by a Singaporean-listed public company (or any other company as may be declared by the Singapore Minister of Finance under the Companies Act) applies at:

- (i) the 5% level; and
- (ii) at every change in a percentage level after that.

Details of acquisitions and disposals by substantial shareholders must generally be given to the company within:

- (i) two business days after the transaction occurs; and
- (ii) two business days after the substantial shareholder becomes aware of such change, respectively.

(d) Related party transactions

In Australia, related party transactions (that is, transactions between a public company and a director, an entity controlled by a director, or a parent company of the public company) are regulated in Australia under the Corporations Act by a requirement for disinterested shareholder approval, unless the transaction is on “arm’s length terms”, represents no more than reasonable remuneration, or complies with other limited exemptions.

Under Singaporean law, loans (including the provision of security or the entry into any guarantee) to directors of a public company or to directors of a related company are regulated, but otherwise the rules regarding related party transactions are not as restrictive as under Australian law. Issues of shares or other equity securities to Directors will be regulated under the Listing Rules to the same extent as a listed Australian company.

(e) Protection of minority shareholders – oppressive conduct

In Australia, a shareholder may apply to the court under the Corporations Act to bring an action in cases of conduct which is either contrary to the interests of shareholders as a whole, or oppressive to, unfairly prejudicial to, or unfairly discriminatory against, any shareholders in their capacity as shareholder, or themselves in capacity other than as a shareholder.

In Singapore, an analogous right to apply to the court is also available to members of a company, where the affairs of the company are being conducted or directors’ powers are being exercised in a manner oppressive to members, in disregard of members’ interests, or some act or resolution by the company unfairly discriminates against or is prejudicial to members.

(f) “Two strikes” rule

Under Australian law, an ASX listed company is required to hold a “spill vote” if its remuneration report receives a 25% no vote at two successive annual general meetings. If the spill vote receives a simple majority, the company must hold a general meeting within 90 days to vote on whether to keep the existing directors.

There is no equivalent rule under Singaporean law.
