

Allot Communications Enables an APAC Wholesale Telecom Provider to Deliver DDoS Mitigation Services to CSPs

Allot Service Protector defends managed networks against large scale cyber-attacks while eliminating the need to divert massive data volumes into scrubbing centers

April 30, 2015 – Hod Hasharon, Israel - Allot Communications Ltd. (NASDAQ, TASE: ALLT), a leading global provider of intelligent broadband solutions that empowers communication service providers to optimize and monetize their networks, enterprises to enhance productivity and consumers to improve their digital experience, announced today that an APAC wholesale telecommunications and cloud services provider has selected Allot ServiceProtector to secure its managed network services. With Allot ServiceProtector, the wholesale service provider becomes a Managed Security Service Provider (MSSP) capable of protecting its telecom service suppliers from cyber-attacks.

Allot ServiceProtector provides a first line of defense against Distributed Denial of Service (DDoS) with the following features:

- Identification and in-line mitigation of large scale attacks scaling up to two Terabits per second
- Advanced multi-tenancy capabilities allowing easy delivery of services
- Granular visibility into attackers and their network targets
- Advanced Network Behavior Anomaly Detection (NBAD) including multi-attack vectors detection
- Flexible deployment options with distributed detection architecture
- Delivered on a unified platform with complementary web security and application control solutions for comprehensive protection

“With the increasing number of DDoS attacks comprised of hundreds of Gbps, our customers are looking for solutions to protect themselves and their customers, and to comply with new security regulations,” said Gary Drutin, Chief Customer Officer, Allot Communications. “Allot’s network-based security service is a competitive differentiator for telecom providers offering security-as-a-service to their customers.”
