

Allot Communications Powers Web Security Services for a Leading Cloud Service Provider

Triple C deployed Allot WebSafe Personal to safeguard consumers and businesses from multitude of cyber-threats

December 28, 2016 – Hod Hasharon, Israel – Allot Communications Ltd. (NASDAQ, TASE: ALLT), a leading provider of security and monetization solutions that enable service providers and enterprises to protect and personalize the digital experience, announced today that Triple C, an Israeli Internet and Cloud Services Provider, deployed Allot WebSafe Personal to secure its customer base of consumers and businesses against cyber threats.

Allot WebSafe Personal enables Triple C to secure the digital experience of subscribers by providing Security as a Service (SECaaS) to consumers and businesses protecting them from online threats and harmful content. As a fully integrated service in Allot Service Gateway platform, Allot WebSafe Personal is a multi-tenant solution built for rapid rollout of personalized anti-malware and parental control services that safeguard customers, increase brand loyalty, and generate incremental revenue. Allot SECaaS solutions are network-based, so they can be used with any device without impacting performance. Allot WebSafe Personal already protects over 15 million users globally.

“We are excited about enabling Triple C to offer comprehensive, personalized, cyber security for its subscriber base. We are proud to provide a high quality and wide-ranging solution that is individually customized, and which was rolled out rapidly throughout the Triple C network.” Says Lior Derry, Regional Sales Manager at Allot Communications Ltd.

“We are delighted to have integrated Allot’s advanced cyber security solution, allowing our customers best in class protection with personalized user experience.” Says Rami Nahum, Triple C CEO. “As a leading provider of Internet and Cloud Computing services, cyber security is a top concern and we are aware of the need for an advanced and high quality security solution. Allot provided the combination of technology, knowledge and experience we needed and therefore working with Allot was the right choice. The solution will be provided to our customers based on their subscription level, and we anticipate rapid growth in the adoption of this service in light of its uniqueness.”
