

Allot NetworkSecure Selected by Más Móvil Panama to Provide Network-native Cybersecurity Protection to their Mobile and Fixed Customers

Más Móvil is the first network operator in Panama to adopt network-native, zero-touch cybersecurity for their subscribers.

HOD HASHARON, ISRAEL, August 11 2025 -- Allot Ltd. (NASDAQ: ALLT) (TASE: ALLT), a leading global provider of innovative Security-as-a-Service (SECaaS) and network intelligence solutions for communications service providers and enterprises, announced today that Más Móvil Panamá has selected Allot NetworkSecure to provide network-native cybersecurity protection and parental control services to its residential postpaid customers in a first phase and subsequently expand to prepaid mobile and fixed-line segments, protecting them against a wide range of cyberthreats.

Allot NetworkSecure is a network-native cybersecurity service platform that offers zero-touch, clientless operation, requiring no application installation by the subscriber. With NetworkSecure, Más Móvil Panama can offer its subscribers protection from the latest cybersecurity threats, including different types of malware such as ransomware, trojans, adware and bots as well as phishing attacks. NetworkSecure also delivers parental control services to help parents provide a safe online experience for their families. Más Móvil is the first network operator in Panama to adopt Allot NetworkSecure.

“At Más Móvil, we are pleased to offer our customers the Defender+ service – a solution that reflects our commitment to their digital security. This tool enables safe browsing without the need to install any application, providing accessible and effective protection for our users. We believe this security solution will mark a turning point in the digital experience we offer. Powered by Allot, the solution aligns with the industry's best practices, which we apply across all our customer services. At Más Móvil, we remain committed to delivering a safer and more connected future for everyone,” said Ana Patricia Salazar, Vice President of B2C Marketing and Brand.

“We are proud to have been selected by Más Móvil Panama to provide a network-native cybersecurity solution for their consumer customers. Allot NetworkSecure enables a zero-touch approach that not only simplifies cybersecurity protection for Más Móvil customers, but also advances the proliferation of cutting-edge cybersecurity technology in Panama,” said Moshe Moran, Vice President of Sales, Americas for Allot.
