Explanations:

1. It is also required to report other securities holdings (non-BONDS), including non-listed securities.
2. In cases where reporting the holding of non-convertible BONDS is required, the holdings table may be attached as a PDF at the designated field at the end of part B, in accordance with Legal Staff Position No. 104-21: Link.
Alt text: Link to Staff Position 104-21 PDF on the Israel Securities Authority site.
3. If an interested party holds more than one type of security in the corporation, the holding percentage (including full dilution) must be indicated considering all securities held by that party in a single row.
4. This form details the holdings status for all interested parties, including those whose holdings have not changed.
5. Where the interested party is a controlled company whose activities are material to the corporation's activity, holdings must be split into shares purchased prior to the enforcement of the Companies Law 1999 (granting rights in equity and voting), and shares purchased after that (dormant shares).
6. If the interested party is a corporation, also state the name(s) of the ultimate controlling shareholder(s) in that corporation. If there is no controlling shareholder, provide details of the interested parties within the corporation.
7. If a senior officer holds five percent or more of issued share capital or voting rights, details of their holdings should be included in the "Interested Parties" table above (Section A).
8. If the interested party or senior officer also holds securities in a material subsidiary, these must be detailed in the "comments" field in the holder's information.
