Re: Pelephone Network Outage

Further to the report of Bezeq dated September 3, 2018, Bezeq reports that it received a report from its subsidiary, Pelephone Communications Ltd. (“Pelephone”), that on the afternoon of September 11, 2018, there were disruptions in the cellular network to some of Pelephone’s subscribers, affecting incoming/outgoing calls, text messages and wireless internet service.

Pelephone was able to restore the service back to normal within a short period of time.

Today, in the morning hours, Pelephone informed Bezeq that there were further disruptions in the cellular network.

According to Pelephone’s assessment, the cause of the disruptions appears to be related to the disruptions that occurred on the cellular network on September 2, 2018, as described in the report of September 3, 2018.

Pelephone continues to take steps to deal with the matter and restore service back to normal.

Sincerely,
Bezeq Israel Telecommunications Corporation Ltd.
