Explanations:

1. A report must also be made on the holding of other securities (other than BONDS), including other securities that are not listed for trading.
2. In a case where a report is required on a holding in BONDS that are not convertible into shares, the status of holdings may be attached as a PDF file in the field designated for this purpose at the end of section B, instead of entering the data in the form, all in accordance with Legal Staff Position No. 104-21: Link.
The PDF file must be prepared in a structure and content corresponding to the Excel file that was published by the Authority and attached to the staff position. The PDF file shall include, at a minimum, the information appearing in the Excel file.
3. If the interested party holds more than one type of security in the corporation, the holding percentage (including in full dilution) should be stated taking into account all the securities held by him, in a single row only.
4. In this form the status of holdings of all interested parties shall be detailed, including those whose holdings have not changed.
5. In a case where the interested party is a held company with activities that are material to the activities of the corporation, the holdings shall be split between shares acquired prior to the entry into force of the Companies Law, 1999, which confer rights in capital and voting, and shares acquired after its entry into force which are dormant shares.
6. If the interested party is a corporation, the first name(s) of the ultimate sole controlling shareholder(s) in this corporation shall also be stated. If there is no controlling shareholder in the interested party – the details of the interested parties in it shall be given.
7. If a senior officer holds five percent or more of the issued share capital of the corporation or of its voting power, his holdings shall be detailed in the "interested parties" holdings table as set out in section A above.
8. If the interested party or the senior officer also holds securities in his held company, if its activities are material to the activities of the corporation, details of such holdings shall be provided in the "Comments" field within the holder's details.
