Nature of Event:

Appointment of 2 Market Makers - Migdal Capital Markets and Proxima Dynamics

1.

The company is honored to report that on November 6, 2025, two market makers were appointed: Migdal Capital Markets Ltd. and Proxima Dynamics Ltd. – who will operate in the company’s share. This follows the company’s engagement with the Tel Aviv Stock Exchange Ltd. ("the Exchange") in an agreement to establish a tailor-made market making plan for the company’s share ("the Plan").

Within the Plan, the Exchange will oversee the market makers’ compliance with the Exchange’s bylaws and its directives as determined from time to time. The company will bear payments to the market makers, including a fixed component for the activity and a variable component based on the market makers’ performance. The amounts the company will bear for the market making activity are not material to the company. The parties intend to operate the Plan for at least one year. It should be noted that each party may terminate the Plan with 60 days advance notice. Notwithstanding the aforementioned, for one year from the start of the market makers’ activity, neither party may give notice to terminate the Plan, except in the case of regulatory impediment. Market making in the company’s shares is expected to commence on November 20, 2025.
