Explanations:

1. Holdings of other securities (not bonds), including other non-listed securities, must also be reported.
2. If reporting is required on holding non-convertible bonds, the list of holdings can be attached as a PDF file, in accordance with Legal Staff Position 104-21: link (alt: Link to Staff Legal Position 104-21 PDF on ISA website)
3. If an interested party holds more than one type of security in the corporation, the holding percentage (including full dilution) should be reported in a single row, considering all securities held.
4. This form should detail the holdings status of all interested parties, including those with unchanged holdings.
5. If the interested party is a held company with substantial activity for the corporation, holdings should be split as to shares acquired before/after the Companies Act and their rights.
6. If the interested party is a corporation, also state the names of the ultimate controlling shareholders. If there’s no controlling shareholder – details of the interested parties in it shall be provided.
7. If a senior officer holds 5% or more of the share capital or voting, their holdings should be reported in the 'Interested Parties' table above.
8. If an interested party or senior officer also holds securities in a subsidiary with substantial activity, details should be included in the remarks field in their details.
