- B. ☐ The holder is a member of an institutional reporting group.
- ☒ The holder is not a member of an institutional reporting group but serves as a senior officer (not CEO or director) and is not an interested party by virtue of holdings.
- ☐ The holder is a hedge fund as defined by the Joint Investments in Trust Regulations (Permitted Assets and Maximum Holdings) 1994. The hedge fund has the right to appoint a director or representative to the company’s board: _____

Details of holdings:

Holder	Name/Type and Series of Security	Security Number	Quantity of Securities	Dormant
_____	_____	_____	_____	_____

Explanations:

1. If the interested party holds more than one type of security, the rate of holdings across all securities should be detailed in only one row.
2. Report also on holdings of other securities, including those not traded.
3. If the interested party is a subsidiary, split holdings between shares purchased before and after the entry into force of the Companies Law, 1999.
4. If the holder is not an institutional reporting group member, complete only section 3A; if so, complete both 3A and 3B.
5. If the interested party is a company wholly owned (100%) by a single controlling shareholder, the "Holder Name" should be that person's name, with details of the companies via which the shares are held in the form footnotes. In case of multiple controlling shareholders or interested parties, indicate the company holder's name.
6. Reporting regarding substantial means of control in a banking corporation with no controlling core is included in report T121.

Note: Indicate if the securities are dormant or convertible into dormant shares.
