Explanations:

1. If the interested party holds more than one type of security, the holding percentages should be indicated considering all securities held by him only in one row.
 2. It is also necessary to report holdings of other securities, including those not listed for trading.
 3. If the interested party is a subsidiary, the holdings should be split between shares acquired before the Companies Law, 1999 came into effect, and shares acquired after it came into effect.
 4. When the holder is not a member of an institutional reporting group, only section 3A should be filled. When the holder is a member of an institutional reporting group, both sections 3A and 3B should be filled.
 5. If the interested party is a corporation wholly owned (100%) by a single controlling shareholder, the field "Holder Name" should state the name of the sole controlling shareholder, and the notes at the bottom of the form should include details of the corporation(s) through which the shares are held, along with any other relevant details. Conversely, if the interested party is a corporation held by more than one controlling shareholder, or by several interested parties, the field "Holder Name" should state the name of the holding corporation, and the notes at the bottom of the form should include details of the controlling shareholders or interested parties holding the holding corporation.
 6. Reporting about a person with a significant means of control in a banking corporation without a control core should be reported in report T121.
- Please indicate whether these are dormant shares or securities convertible into dormant shares.

4.

- The interested party does not hold shares or other securities in a held company, if its activity is material to the activity of the reporting corporation.
