

ELBIT IMAGING ANNOUNCES RESULTS OF "DUTCH AUCTION" TO INSTITUTIONAL INVESTORS FOR ITS DEBENTURE OFFERING IN ISRAEL

Tel Aviv, July 28, 2010, Elbit Imaging Ltd. (NASDAQ: EMITF) ("Elbit") announced today that the offering by way of "Dutch Auction" to institutional investors in connection with a proposed public offering in Israel by way of extending its existing Series G Debentures, pursuant to the shelf prospectus filed on July 21, 2009, has concluded. Elbit is offering up to NIS 200,000,000 principal amount of Series G Debentures of which institutional investors have subscribed for the entire 80% of the offering allotted by law to institutional investors.

The final pricing information relating to the proposed public offering is as follows:

NIS 160,000 principal amount of Series G Debentures, at the price of NIS 951 per unit (each unit is comprised of NIS 1,000 principal amount) representing a 6.44% yield per annum and an aggregate proceeds amount of NIS 152.2 million. The additional Series G Debentures have the same terms as the original Series G Debentures.

Elbit plans to file a supplemental shelf offering report pursuant to the above-mentioned prospectus later today in Israel, subject to the approval of the Tel Aviv Stock Exchange.

Assuming that the total offering will be subscribed for, after giving effect to the payment of distributor fees, early commitment discounts for institutional investors and other offering expenses, Elbit expects the net proceeds of the offering to be approximately NIS 188 million.

The offering described in this press release, is being made in Israel to residents of Israel only. The said debentures will not be registered under the U.S. Securities Act of 1933, as amended, and will not be offered or sold in the United States. This press release shall not constitute an offer to sell or the solicitation of an offer to buy any securities. There is no assurance that the proposed offering will be completed.
