

Elbit Systems Awarded an Approximately $45 Million Contract for the Supply of Military Communications Systems to a European Country

Haifa, Israel, August 5, 2015 – Elbit Systems Ltd. (NASDAQ and TASE: ESLT) ("Elbit Systems") announced today that it was awarded an approximately $45 million contract from a European country for the supply of military communications systems. The contract will be performed over a two-year period.

The mobile communications systems, part of the CNR-9000 and HF-6000 product families, will be provided to a wide range of users, from the individual soldier to the division level, in dismounted and mounted configurations, for both medium and long-range distances. Tens of thousands of these systems are already in use by numerous armed forces around the world.

Yehuda (Udi) Vered, General Manager of Elbit Systems Land & C4I Division commented: "We are proud of this award, attesting to our communications systems cutting edge capabilities. There is a need for a reliable voice and data transfer in the modern battlefield, and the decision of this customer to equip its army with our systems reflects the recognition of the high quality and functionality of our communications products".
