

Elbit Systems receives "ilA-1+" Short Term Rating From S&P Global Ratings Maalot Ltd. to Commercial Paper Issuance in Israel

Haifa, Israel, August 16, 2023 – Elbit Systems Ltd. (NASDAQ: ESLT and TASE: ESLT) ("Elbit Systems" or the "Company") announced today that S&P Global Ratings Maalot Ltd., an Israeli rating agency ("Maalot") had assigned an ilA-1+ (on local scaling) short term issuer rating to the Company and an ilA-1+ (on local scaling) short term rating to commercial paper that may be issued by the Company in Israel ("Commercial Paper").

Maalot's rating report (the "Rating Report") in Hebrew was filed with the Israel Securities Authority and the Tel Aviv Stock Exchange. An unofficial English translation of the Rating Report will be submitted by the Company on Form 6-K to the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission.

Elbit Systems is considering, and the Board of Directors has authorized management to prepare for, a potential issuance of Commercial Paper, which, if and when issued, will not be listed on any stock exchange. The execution, timing, terms and amounts of Commercial Paper to be issued have not been finally determined and there is no assurance that the issuance will be completed.

Any Commercial Paper, if offered, will not be registered under the U.S. Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the "Securities Act"), and may not be offered or sold in the United States or to U.S. Persons (as defined in Regulation "S" promulgated under the Securities Act) without registration under the Securities Act or an exemption from the registration requirements of the Securities Act. Any offering of Commercial Paper, if made, will be made only in Israel. This announcement shall not constitute a solicitation or an offer to buy any securities.

This press release may contain forward-looking statements (within the meaning of Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended and the Israeli Securities Law, 1968) regarding Elbit Systems Ltd. and/or its subsidiaries (collectively the Company), to the extent such statements do not relate to historical or current facts. Forward-looking statements are based on management's current expectations, estimates, projections and assumptions about future events. Forward-looking statements are made pursuant to the safe harbor provisions of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995, as amended. These statements are not guarantees of future performance and involve certain risks, uncertainties and assumptions about the Company, which are difficult to predict, including projections of the Company's future financial results, its anticipated growth strategies and anticipated trends in its business. Therefore, actual future results, performance and trends may differ materially from these forward-looking statements due to a variety of factors, including, without limitation: scope and length of customer contracts; governmental regulations and approvals; changes in governmental budgeting priorities; general market, political and economic conditions in the countries in which the Company operates or sells, including Israel and the United States among others; changes in global health and macro-economic conditions; differences in anticipated and actual program performance, including the ability to perform under long-term fixed-price contracts; changes in the competitive environment; and the outcome of legal and/or regulatory proceedings. The factors listed above are not all-inclusive, and further information is contained in Elbit Systems Ltd.'s latest annual report on Form 20-F, which is on file with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission. All forward-looking statements speak only as of the date of this release. Although the Company believes the expectations reflected in the forward-looking statements contained herein are reasonable, it cannot guarantee future results, level of activity, performance or achievements. Moreover, neither the Company nor any other person assumes responsibility for the accuracy and completeness of any of these forward-looking statements. The Company does not undertake to update its forward-looking statements.
