Minutes of the Questions & Answers at the Annual General Meeting held on 24 July 2025

DIRECTORS' STATEMENTS AND AUDITED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS FOR THE FINANCIAL YEAR ENDED 31 MARCH 2025 – RESOLUTION 1

Question 1 : A shareholder brought the Meeting to page 7 of the Annual Report 2025 and raised concerns about liquidity, enquiring about the main income stream of Rich Capital Holdings Limited (the “Company” and together with its subsidiaries, the “Group”).

Reply : Mr Oh Siyang (“Ken Oh”), Executive Director of the Company, referred the Meeting to page 44 of the Annual Report 2025 for the Consolidated Statement of Cash Flows and replied that the net cash used in operating and financing activities amounted to S$1.19 million and S$53,000 respectively. Ken Oh added that the income of the Group is derived from three main components, construction projects, subcontracting services and consultancy work.

: Mr Chang Chi Hsung (“Alan Chung”), Chairman of the Meeting, referred shareholders to the Group’s investment in subsidiaries. The details of each subsidiary’s principal business activity are available on page 72 under note 6 of the Annual Report 2025.

Question 2 : A shareholder sought clarification on the Group’s investment in Rich Batam Private Limited (“Rich Batam”).

Reply : Ken Oh informed that the Group had completed the disposal of 100% of the issued and paid-up share capital of the Company’s wholly owned subsidiary, Rich Batam on 13 May 2025.

Ken Oh explained that Rich Batam was sold at a loss as retaining Rich Batam as an asset was no longer viable for the Group. The litigation case in Indonesia, which was concluded in November 2024, dampened the investment appetite and affected the Group’s ability to negotiate and bid for new projects. The Group has incurred a total loss of approximately S$12.94 million which had been written off in FY2022.

Alan Chung informed the Meeting that the detailed litigation timeline was released on the SGXNet, and shareholders were advised to refer to the announcements for complete information relating to the litigation case.

Question 3 : A shareholder raised questions about the Group’s investment in its wholly-owned subsidiaries Infinio Korea Co. Ltd. (“Infinio”) and Summit Light Ventures Ltd. (“Summit Light”) incorporated in Korea and Australia respectively as well as the total investments in each of the subsidiary.

Reply

: Ken Oh responded that the investment in Summit Light was intended to facilitate mining-related activities. However, due to the high research cost associated with such activities, the Group has decided to wind up the entity. Summit Light has been deregistered in November 2024, and the Group incurred a total loss of approximately S$6.45 million. As for Infinio, it has been struck off from the Korean Corporate Registry in May 2024 and the impairment loss incurred was approximately S$239,000. The two subsidiaries have been dormant.

Alan Chung clarified that the investments in Summit Light and Infinio were inherited from the past management and board. He also added that the Group is now focusing on pursuing strategic investments to improve the financial position of the Group.

Ken Oh echoed Alan Chung's point that the Group will continue to focus on pursuing strategic investments. The Group also remains committed on existing projects and will explore new ventures should new opportunities arise.
