Explanations:

1. It is also required to report the holding of other securities (that are not BONDS), including other securities that are not listed for trading.
2. In a case where it is required to report a holding of BONDS that are not convertible into shares, it is permitted to attach the holdings status as a PDF file in the designated field for that at the end of Section B, instead of entering the data in the form, all in accordance with the provisions of Legal Staff Position No. 104-21: Link.
The PDF file must be prepared in a structure and content corresponding to the Excel file published by the Authority and attached to the staff position. The PDF file shall include, at a minimum, the information appearing in the Excel file.
3. If the interested party holds more than one type of security in the corporation, the holding percentage (including on a fully diluted basis) must be stated taking into account all the securities held by him, in one single row only.
4. In this form, the holdings status of all interested parties must be detailed, including those whose holdings have not changed.
5. In a case where the interested party is a held company whose operations are material to the operations of the corporation, the holdings must be split between shares that were acquired prior to the entry into force of the Companies Law, 1999, and which confer rights in capital and voting, and shares that were acquired after its entry into force and are dormant shares.
6. If the interested party is a corporation, it is also necessary to state the first name of the ultimate individual controlling shareholder(s) in this corporation. If there is no controlling shareholder in the interested party – details shall be given of the interested parties therein.
7. If a senior officer holds five percent or more of the issued share capital of the corporation or of the voting power therein, his holdings must be detailed in the "Interested Parties" holdings table as set out in Section A above.
8. If the interested party or the senior officer also holds securities in a company held by him, if its operations are material to the operations of the corporation, details of these holdings shall be stated in the "Remarks" field appearing within the holder's details.
