Explanations:

1. It is also required to report holdings of other securities (that are not BONDS), including other securities that are not listed for trading.
2. In a case where a report is required on holdings in BONDS that are not convertible into shares, the holdings status may be attached as a PDF file in the designated field at the end of Section B, instead of entering the data in the form, all in accordance with what is stated in Legal Staff Position No. 104-21: Link.
The PDF file must be prepared in a structure and content that match the Excel file published by the Authority and attached to the staff position. The PDF file will include at least the information appearing in the Excel file.
3. If the interested party holds more than one type of security in the corporation, the holding percentage (including on a fully diluted basis) must be stated taking into account all securities held by him, in a single row only.
4. In this form, the holdings status of all interested parties must be detailed, including those whose holdings did not change.
5. In a case where the interested party is a held company whose activities are material to the corporation's activities, the holdings must be split between shares purchased prior to the entry into force of the Companies Law, 1999, which confer rights in equity and voting, and shares purchased after its entry into force which are dormant shares.
6. If the interested party is a corporation, the first name of the ultimate controlling shareholder(s) in this corporation must also be stated. If there is no controlling shareholder in the interested party – the details of its interested parties will be provided.
7. If a senior officer holds five percent or more of the corporation's issued share capital or of its voting power, his holdings must be detailed in the "interested parties" holdings table as detailed in Section A above.
8. If the interested party or the senior officer also holds securities in a company controlled by him, if its activities are material to the corporation's activities, details of such holdings will be provided in the "Remarks" field appearing under the holder's details.
