Nature of the event: Special payment on bank profits in 2026 and 2027

Reference numbers of previous reports on the matter: _________, _________, _________.

The Company is honored to announce that First International Bank of Israel Ltd. (hereinafter: "the Bank"), a corporation controlled by the Company, reported on March 30, 2026, that on this date the Economic Efficiency Bill (Legislative Amendments to Achieve the Budget Targets for the 2026 Budget Year), 5786 – 2026 (hereinafter: "the Economic Efficiency Law") was approved in a second and third reading by the Knesset plenum. As part of the Economic Efficiency Law, it was determined that a bank that does not have a small volume of activity, including the Bank (hereinafter: "Paying Bank"), will pay the state treasury for the period from April 1, 2026, until December 31, 2027: (a) in 2026 – a payment in an amount equal to 12% of the profit it generated from its activity in Israel (with respect to the proportional part of the profit in this tax year); and (b) in 2027 – a payment in an amount equal to 0.5% of the profit it generated from its activity in Israel. In addition, provisions were set regarding a tax refund if the total annual payment amount for 2026 of all the Paying Banks exceeds NIS 3 billion or if the total annual payment amount for 2027 of all the Paying Banks exceeds the amount of NIS 0.25 billion (each bank according to its proportional share in the payment).
In accordance with the Bank's assessment, based, among other things, on the Bank's estimated share among the Paying Banks based on the profits of the Paying Banks for 2025 and based on the cumulative tax ceiling of all the Paying Banks as stated above, the additional special tax that will apply to the Bank under the Economic Efficiency Law is expected to amount, in 2026, to between NIS 210 million and NIS 240 million and, in 2027, to an amount that is not material for the Bank.
It should be clarified that the Bank's assessment regarding the expected additional tax due to the Economic Efficiency Law constitutes forward-looking information as defined in the Securities Law, 5728 – 1968, based on the Bank's assessments as of this date. These assessments may not materialize, in whole or in part, or may materialize in a manner materially different from what is anticipated, inter alia in view of the scope of the Bank's profits in the relevant years and the total profits of the Paying Banks subject to the Economic Efficiency Law.
