Examining the issuance of debentures to the public

1. The company is honored to announce that it is considering the possibility of publishing a shelf offering report, according to which, by way of a uniform offering (as defined in the Securities Law, 1968 and the Securities Regulations (Manner of Offering Securities to the Public), 2007), debentures (Series 7 (new series)) will be offered to the public by the company's subsidiary, I.D.I. Issuances (2010) Ltd., which will be listed for trading on the Tel Aviv Stock Exchange Ltd., and the proceeds will be deposited with the company (the "Debentures", "I.D.I. Issuances", and the "Offering", respectively). Accordingly, on August 18, 2025, I.D.I. Issuances published a first draft of the trust deed for the debentures and a summary of the terms of the offering in connection with the debentures. It is clarified that as of the date of this immediate report, the date of the offering by I.D.I. Issuances as mentioned, its scope, and the terms of the debentures to be offered to the public (if and to the extent they are offered) have not yet been finally determined, and nothing in this immediate report creates any obligation on the part of the company and/or I.D.I. Issuances to proceed with the offering of the debentures as mentioned. It is further clarified that the offering is subject to obtaining all required approvals by law, as well as the approval of the Capital Market, Insurance and Savings Authority, that the proceeds from the debentures to be issued (if and to the extent they are issued) will be recognized by the Commissioner of the Capital Market as Tier 2 capital of the company. Therefore, there is no certainty that the aforementioned offering will be carried out. Nothing in this immediate report constitutes an offer or invitation to purchase securities.
