Explanations:

1. One must also report holdings of other securities (that are not BONDS), including other securities that are not listed for trading.
2. In a case where a report is required on holding BONDS that are not convertible into shares, it is possible to attach the schedule of holdings as a PDF file in the designated field at the end of section B, instead of entering the data in the form, all in accordance with Legal Staff Position No. 104-21: Link .

The PDF file must be prepared in a structure and content that matches the Excel file published by the Authority and attached to the staff position. The PDF file will include, at a minimum, the information appearing in the Excel file.

3. If the interested party holds more than one type of security in the corporation, the holding percentage (including on a fully diluted basis) must be stated, taking into account all the securities held by him, in one row only.
4. In this form the position of holdings of all interested parties must be detailed, including those whose holdings have not changed.
5. In a case where the interested party is a held company with activities that are material to the corporation's activity, the holdings must be split into shares purchased before the Companies Law, 5759 – 1999, came into force, which confer rights in capital and voting, and shares purchased after it came into force which are dormant shares.
6. If the interested party is a corporation, the first name(s) of the ultimate controlling shareholder(s) in this corporation must also be stated. If there is no controlling shareholder in the interested party – the details of the interested parties therein will be given.
7. If a senior officer holds five percent or more of the issued share capital of the corporation or of the voting power therein, his holdings must be detailed in the "Interested parties" holdings table as specified in section A above.
8. If the interested party or the senior officer also holds securities in his held company, if its activities are material to the corporation's activity, a detailed description of these holdings will be given in the "Remarks" field appearing within the holder's details.

Explanation: According to Regulation 5 of the Securities Regulations (Periodic and Immediate Reports) (5730 – 1970), a report submitted under these Regulations shall be signed by those authorized to sign on behalf of the corporation. A staff position on the subject can be found on the Authority's website: Click here .

To the best of the knowledge of the company and the directors, the controlling shareholder of the company is LFH, which holds 64.10% of the company's issued and paid-up capital. To the best of the company's knowledge, the shares of LFH are held by members of the Lewis family directly and/or via various companies and trusts. About 21.5% of the shares of LFH are held (separately) by Messrs. Bernard Lewis, Leonard Lewis, Simon Lewis, Benjamin Lewis, Julian Lewis, Clive Lewis and Joseph Lewis (in an unequal distribution between them such that none of them holds more than 5% of the shares of LFH), who also serve as directors in LFH. The balance of the shares of LFH is held (separately) by companies, trusts or individuals from the Lewis family (in an unequal distribution between them, such that none of the additional holders holds more than 12.5% of the shares of LFH). According to the aforesaid information, and according to information provided to the company by LFH and its principal shareholders, that there is no agreement or any other coordination between them regarding the manner of managing their holdings in LFH, including regarding the manner of their voting in the board of directors or in the general meeting of LFH, the company's position is that the shareholders of LFH do not hold its shares together and that none of LFH's shareholders is a controlling shareholder in LFH and therefore is not a controlling shareholder in the company either. The position of the staff of the Israel Securities Authority, as communicated to the company, is that in the circumstances detailed above, including in light of the family relationship between the shareholders, the staff of the Israel Securities Authority regards the articles of association of LFH as an agreement creating joint holding among all the shareholders of LFH, given that the articles of association of LFH enshrine, inter alia, the manner of making decisions in the private company and therefore, according to said position, constitute a voting agreement between the shareholders.

Therefore, according to the position of the staff of the Israel Securities Authority, all shareholders in LFH, including the shareholders in the companies holding shares in LFH and the beneficiaries in the trusts holding LFH, must be regarded as controlling shareholders in the company. In light of the aforesaid, the company agreed that it will state the above, as well as the said position of the staff of the Israel Securities Authority, in the relevant reports regarding holdings of interested parties in the company, and will also report on a transaction between the company and any of LFH's shareholders (excluding a negligible transaction) in an immediate report, including transactions under Regulation 3 of the Securities Regulations (Transaction between a company and its controlling shareholder), 5761-2001, with the necessary changes, and in the Periodic report within Regulation 22 of the Securities Regulations (Periodic and Immediate Reports), 5730-1970, while noting the position of the Israel Securities Authority on the issue.
