Leading Chinese Integrator to Use Magic Software's iBOLT Integration Platform As Its Strategic Integration Solution

Or Yehuda, Israel (October 27, 2005) - Magic Software Enterprises (NASDAQ: MGIC), a leading provider of state-of-the-art development and integration technology and Huadi Computer Co., Ltd one of the leaders of the Information industry in China, announced today that they have signed a 5 year agreement under which Huadi would provide solutions using the iBOLT integration platform. This agreement is expected to generate business of at least $3 Million Dollars for Magic within its duration.

Huadi has successfully implemented hundreds of projects, which cross over multiple vertical industries such as energy, communication, police, railway, petroleum, aerospace, shipping, insurance, education and etc. Huadi was founded as a joint venture of the Chinese Aerospace Corporation and Hewlett Packard.

Magic Software's iBOLT is designed as a comprehensive, and cost-effective Business Process Integration and Composite Application framework. iBOLT seeks to rationalize competing standards and proprietary formats while quickly creating and dynamically deploying new business processes, services, and applications. Its innovative visual design tools, Data Mapper and integration wizards are positioned to assure enterprises of fast, successful, end-to-end business integration.

"This cooperation with Magic will help us reinforce our leadership in the business integration market in China. iBOLT will enable us to provide significant nationwide solutions faster and more efficiently than our competitors. Magic's iBOLT delivers the powerful integration technology that we have been seeking for long time," stated Mr. C.J Zhang, CEO of Huadi Computer Co., Ltd. This long term agreement will facilitate a strong relationship with Magic and we are confident that this will help us create more business opportunities in China."

The first project that Huadi will utilize iBOLT for will be for a significant integration project for the Chinese police.

"This is a very significant milestone in the evolution of our business in China, the result of our persistent and patient work over the last few years" said David Assia, the Executive Chairman and co-founder of Magic Software. "We have spent the last 6 months working with Huadi to ensure that our cooperation will result in their positioning as the business integration leaders in China." " We believe that this partnership will leverage our presence in China and together with Huadi we will be able to develop much larger projects in additional government ministries," added Meir Koren Magic's Director for Asia Pacific.

This agreement between Magic and Huadi was brokered by Magic's partner in China, the Sunwah Group headed by Mr. Jonathan Choi, and Mr. Benjamin NG, the president of Sunwah IT, with whom Magic signed a strategic cooperation agreement, regarding China, over one year ago.

The SunWah group, is a diversified conglomerate with businesses in six principal areas - Seafood and Foodstuff, Real estate, Financial services, Infrastructure, Technology and Media. Based in Hong Kong, the Group's activities span Mainland China, Macau, Vietnam, Myanmar, Cambodia, Singapore, Canada, Europe, USA and Australia.
