PRESS RELEASE

H+W CONSULT Chooses Magic's Technology to Integrate Cloud and On-premise Solutions

Magic xpi Integration Platform Increases Efficiency and Improves Business Processes by Integrating Salesforce.com with Business Management, ERP, and Accounting Systems

Or Yehuda, Israel, July 3, 2012 – Magic Software Enterprises Ltd. (NASDAQ: MGIC), a global provider of software platforms for enterprise mobility, cloud applications, and business integration, announced today that its German business partner, H+W CONSULT, has been chosen to implement Magic-based integration projects for PETER CREMER in Germany and Y-Soft in the Czech Republic.

PETER CREMER, a Hamburg-based leading producer and distributor of raw materials for the oleochemical industry, has chosen to use Magic xpi Integration Platform to integrate its on-demand Salesforce.com CRM with Navision and Microsoft SharePoint. The solution developed by H+W CONSULT leverages Magic xpi's code-free simplicity and built-in certified connectors to optimize CREMER's worldwide forecasting and sales processes.

Y-Soft, an international provider of print management systems, based in the Czech city of Brno, has chosen to replace its current integration tool with Magic xpi Integration Platform to connect its cloud-based Salesforce.com CRM with Computer Associates, Helios ERP, and local accounting systems in 17 countries worldwide. Magic's advanced technology and fresh approach to enterprise integration enables Y-Soft to standardize its worldwide sales processes and fully integrate its support and sales activities. In addition, it provides Y-Soft with the tools to maintain a 360° view of its customers and perform reliable real-time forecasting. Magic xpi's easy-to-use, ready-made certified connectors for a wide range of enterprise systems enable Y-Soft to develop a comprehensive solution that is not only much faster to implement, but is also easier to maintain.

Commenting on these projects, Stephan Romeder, General Manager of Magic Germany, said: "We are very pleased to see the success of Magic xpi in responding to the needs of our customers for fast, efficient, and reliable business integration. These projects, implemented by our business partner, H+W CONSULT, demonstrate the proven benefits of Magic xpi Integration Platform both in delivering business efficiency and streamlined functionality."
