Explanations:

1. Report must also include holding of other securities (not including BONDS), including those not listed for trading.
2. When it is required to report on holding BONDS not convertible to shares, the holding roster may be attached as a PDF file.
3. If an interested party holds more than one type of security, their total holdings should be presented in a single line, considering all securities held (including full dilution).
4. This form should list all interested parties' holdings, including those whose holdings have not changed.
5. If the interested party is a controlled company with significant activities, split holdings into shares acquired before and after the Companies Law came into effect.
6. If the interested party is a company, state the controlling shareholder's name(s); if there is none, mention all interested parties in it.
7. If a senior officer holds 5% or more of share capital/voting, include him in section A ("Interested Parties").
8. Securities held in significant controlled subsidiaries to be detailed in the "Remarks" field.

Is there a controlling shareholder in the corporation as of this report date?
