Explanations:

1. If the interested party holds more than one type of security, the holding percentages reflecting all the securities held should appear on only one line.
2. Holdings of other securities, including those not listed for trading, should also be reported.
3. If the interested party is a subsidiary, holdings of shares acquired before and after the Companies Law, 1999, coming into effect should be differentiated.
4. If the holder is not a member of an institutional reporting group, fill only section 3A. If the holder is a member, fill 3A and 3B.
5. If the interested party is a corporation 100% owned by a single controlling shareholder, list the name of the controlling shareholder in the "holder's name" field and provide details of the corporation(s) through which the shares are held in the notes at the bottom of the form with other relevant details. If the interested party is owned by more than one controlling shareholder or by several interested parties, list the name of the holding corporation and provide details of the controlling shareholders/ interested parties holding the holding corporation in the notes.
6. Reporting regarding any significant means of control in a banking corporation without a control core should be reported via report T121.

*Indicate if these are dormant shares or securities convertible into dormant shares 4.

The interested party does not hold shares or other securities in a held company whose activity is material to the activity of the reporting corporation.

5. Additional Details:

The holdings appearing under pension funds include direct holdings of the pension funds in the security (437,382 par value), holdings by the "Beta Israel Stock Basket" partnership (the partnership) in the amount of 0 par value, and holdings of the "Harel Amittim Israel Shares" partnership (the partnership) in the amount of 1,964,386 par value. The partnerships are partnerships registered with the Partnerships Registrar, and all rights holders are institutional reporting group companies of the Harel group. The partnerships themselves are not pension fund management companies. According to the partnership agreement among the right holders in the partnerships, the holding percentage in the partnerships changes frequently, according to the mechanism specified in the partnership agreement. The controlling shareholders' holding in the company is mainly via G.I.N. Economic Consulting and Investment Management 2017 Limited Partnership (Partnership No. 550272587) ("G.I.N. Partnership"). The partnership is under their full control and ownership, where they hold as limited partners through private companies fully owned by them, and also hold the general partner in the G.I.N. partnership.
