

NICE Actimize Announces ENGAGE 2025 the Industry's Leading Fraud & Financial Crime Risk Management Conference

Fighting fraud and financial crime takes center stage, as NICE Actimize leads visionary sessions on how advanced AI technologies shape the future

Hoboken, N.J., May 29, 2025 – NICE Actimize, a NICE \(NASDAQ: NICE\) business, today announced its information-packed agenda for ENGAGE 2025, the industry's premier financial crime and compliance industry event. To be held on June 17-18 at New York's Sheraton Times Square Hotel, NICE Actimize's ENGAGE will bring together financial institutions thought leaders and subject matter experts to discuss the technology advancements and best practices in financial crime fighting.

More than 200 companies and 1000-plus industry executives from global and regional financial institutions will take part in the event's in-depth sessions, view demo stations showing the latest in advanced AI technology and learn from a renowned lineup of subject matter experts on financial crime risk management.

Compelling Keynotes

The welcoming keynote address will be presented by Craig Costigan, NICE Actimize CEO who will focus on the impact of Agentic AI on financial institutions, and the new era of fraud and financial crime prevention. Another compelling opening-day keynote for ENGAGE will be delivered by Damian Williams, the former United States Attorney for the Southern District of New York (SDNY), and current Litigation, Investigations and White Collar Crime partner at leading global law firm Paul, Weiss, Rifkind, Wharton & Garrison LLP.

Williams draws on his many years of experience as a senior leader, litigator and strategist to advise clients in high-stakes federal and state government investigations, white collar matters and sensitive internal investigations, and crisis management. During his tenure at SDNY, Williams supervised significant matters involving securities and commodities fraud, public corruption, national security threats, Bank Secrecy Act and sanctions violations, cybercrime, money laundering, sex trafficking, healthcare fraud, violent crime, civil rights violations, as well as False Claims Act and environmental matters.

Sessions: Helping FIs Meet Challenges

The content rich agenda will address powerful disruptors like generative AI and shed light on the most pressing challenges in financial crime, fraud prevention and compliance. Other critical sessions include "Implementing AI into your Financial Crime Programs"; "Dismantling Mule Accounts and Networks"; "Beyond Reimbursement: Taking the Fight to Scams"; "KYC & Fraud Join Forces to Defeat Deepfakes"; and "Synthetic Identities, The Future of FinCrime Tech Stacks." Day one of the event will also include insights from law enforcement on what financial institutions need to know. And on day two, a regulatory roundup panel will review advisory on key regulatory changes and implications.

"Addressing the impact of AI on financial crime, NICE Actimize's ENGAGE industry event supports financial institutions as they develop targeted strategies for their future adoption of cutting-edge technologies," said Craig Costigan, CEO, NICE Actimize. "Financial institutions require a powerful combination of intelligence and automation to meet their newest challenges, and our industry-leading event will allow them to network and explore innovative solutions and more effective and efficient options."
