Explanations:

1. If the interested party holds more than one type of security, the holding percentages should be indicated considering all securities held by him only in one row.
 2. It is also necessary to report the holding of other securities, including those not listed for trading.
 3. If the interested party is a subsidiary, the holdings should be split between shares acquired before the entry into force of the Companies Law, 1999, and shares acquired after its entry into force.
 4. When the holder is not a member of an institutional reporting group, only section 3A should be completed. When the holder is a member of an institutional reporting group, both sections 3A and 3B should be completed.
- Please indicate whether these are dormant shares or securities convertible into dormant shares.
