PARTNER COMMUNICATIONS ANNOUNCES
THE HIGH COURT OF JUSTICE'S DECISION
IN FAVOR OF THE COMPANY
WITH RESPECT TO THE FREQUENCY FEES
PETITION

Rosh Ha'ayin, Israel, December 28, 2010 - Partner Communications Company Ltd. ("Partner" or "the Company") (NASDAQ and TASE: PTNR), a leading Israeli mobile communications operator, announces that the Supreme Court in its capacity as a High Court of Justice decided yesterday, December 27, 2010, to fully accept the Company's petition against the Ministry of Communications regarding the amount of frequency fees that the Company should have paid for frequencies allocated to the Company in a tender in 2001.

The Frequency Regulations set gradual fee rates for each frequency band that gradually increase over a four year period, up to a final set annual fee (from the fifth year onwards). The High Court of Justice did not accept the Ministry of Communications' claim that the commencement date of the period for the gradual rates should be the date the Company was first granted its license but rather accepted the Company's claim that the commencement date of the period for the gradual rates, for each frequency band, is the day of its allocation to the Company.

The disagreement was with respect to a sum of approximately NIS 60 million, which has been recognized by the Company, of which the Company has already paid a certain amount as part of an interim arrangement set by the Minister of Communications until a final court decision. The High Court of Justice's decision implies that the Ministry of Communications shall be required to return to the Company the sum already paid by the Company as part of the interim arrangement. The High Court of Justice also decided that the Ministry of Communications will pay to the Company costs and legal fees in the amount of NIS 50,000.

Forward-Looking Statements

This press release includes forward-looking statements within the meaning of Section 27A of the US Securities Act of 1933, as amended, Section 21E of the US Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, and the safe harbor provisions of the US Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Words such as "believe", "anticipate", "expect", "intend", "seek", "will", "plan", "could", "may", "project", "goal", "target" and similar expressions often identify forward-looking statements but are not the only way we identify these statements. All statements other than statements of historical fact included in this press release regarding our future performance, plans to increase revenues or margins or preserve or expand market share in existing or new markets, reduce expenses and any statements regarding other future events or our future prospects, are forward-looking statements.

We have based these forward-looking statements on our current knowledge and our present beliefs and expectations regarding possible future events. These forward-looking statements are subject to risks, uncertainties and assumptions about Partner, consumer habits and preferences in cellular telephone usage, trends in the Israeli telecommunications industry in general, the impact of current global economic conditions and possible regulatory and legal developments. For a description of some of the risks we face, see "Item 3D. Key Information - Risk Factors", "Item 4. - Information on the Company", "Item 5. - Operating and Financial Review and Prospects", "Item 8A. - Consolidated Financial Statements and Other Financial Information - Legal and Administrative Proceedings" and "Item 11. - Quantitative and Qualitative Disclosures about Market Risk" in the Company's 2009 Annual Report (20-F) filed with the SEC. In light of these risks, uncertainties and assumptions, the forward-looking events discussed in this press release might not occur, and actual results may differ materially from the results anticipated. We undertake no obligation to publicly update or revise any forward-looking statements, whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise.
