Explanations:

1. If the change affects more than one security, its impact should be detailed in a separate row for each security.
2. Change date – all changes of the same type, in the same security, carried out on the same day, will be summed on one line. For this purpose, changes performed via the stock exchange clearing house should be separated from those performed directly in the company records.
3. The change – for a decrease, add "-" sign.
4. In all quantity fields, indicate number of securities and not NIS par value.
