

Pluristem Announces Uplisting to the Nasdaq Global Market®

Haifa, Israel, January 27, 2021 - Pluristem Therapeutics Inc. (Nasdaq:PSTI) (TASE:PSTI), a leading regenerative medicine company developing a platform of novel biological therapeutic products, announced that effective as of market open on January 29, 2021, its common shares have been approved for listing to the Nasdaq Global Market® and will continue trading under the company's current ticker symbol – PSTI.

A listing on the Nasdaq Global Market® is considered an indicator of status and success for companies that qualify for listing. Listed companies must satisfy stringent financial, liquidity and corporate governance requirements, both initially and on an ongoing basis.

"We believe that this move is important for the growth of our Company. The listing of our common shares on the Nasdaq Global Market® may help increase our visibility within the institutional marketplace and enhance our ability to broaden our shareholder base with the goal of driving long-term shareholder value," said Pluristem CEO and President, Yaky Yanay.

About Pluristem Therapeutics

Pluristem Therapeutics Inc. is a leading regenerative medicine company developing novel placenta-based cell therapy product candidates. The Company has reported robust clinical trial data in multiple indications for its patented PLX cell product candidates and is currently conducting late-stage clinical trials in several indications. PLX cell product candidates are believed to release a range of therapeutic proteins in response to inflammation, muscle trauma, hematological disorders and radiation damage. The cells are grown using the Company's proprietary three-dimensional expansion technology and can be administered to patients off-the-shelf, without tissue matching. Pluristem has a strong intellectual property position; a Company-owned and operated GMP-certified manufacturing and research facility; strategic relationships with major research institutions; and a seasoned management team.
