- Explanations:
1. If the interested party holds more than one type of security, the holding percentages must be stated taking into account all the securities he holds, in only one of the lines.

2. It is also necessary to report the holding of other securities, including other securities that are not listed for trading.

3. In a case where the interested party is a subsidiary, the holdings must be split between shares purchased before the Companies Law, 1999 came into force, and shares purchased after it came into force.

4. When the holder is not a member of an institutional reporting group, only section 3a must be completed. When the holder is a member of an institutional reporting group, sections 3a and 3b must be completed.

5. If the interested party is a corporation wholly owned (100%) by a single controlling shareholder, the field “Name of holder” must indicate the name of the single controlling shareholder, and in the notes at the bottom of the form, the details of the corporation or corporations through which the shares are held will be provided, together with any other relevant detail. In contrast, if the interested party is a corporation held by more than one controlling shareholder, or held by several interested parties, the field “Name of holder” must indicate the name of the holding corporation, and in the notes at the bottom of the form, the details of the controlling shareholders or interested parties who hold the holding corporation will be provided.

6. A report regarding a holder of a material means of control in a banking corporation without a core of control shall be reported in report T121.

* It must be stated whether these are dormant shares or securities convertible into dormant shares
