Explanations:

1. A report must also be made on the holding of other securities (other than BONDS), including other securities that are not listed for trading.

2. In a case where a report is required on a holding in BONDS that are not convertible into shares, the holdings status may be attached as a PDF file in the designated field at the end of Section B, instead of entering the data in the form, all in accordance with the provisions of Legal Staff Position No. 104-21: Link.

The PDF file must be prepared in a structure and content corresponding to the Excel file published by the Authority and attached to the staff position. The PDF file shall include, at a minimum, the information appearing in the Excel file.

3. If the interested party holds more than one type of security in the corporation, the rate of holding (including in full dilution) must be indicated taking into account all securities held by him in a single line only.

4. In this form one must detail the holdings status of all interested parties, including those whose holdings have not changed.

5. In a case where the interested party is a held company with operations that are material to the operations of the corporation, the holdings must be split between shares acquired prior to the entry into force of the Companies Law, 1999, which grant rights in capital and voting, and shares acquired after its entry into force and which are dormant shares.

6. If the interested party is a corporation, the first name of the ultimate controlling shareholder(s) of this corporation must also be indicated. If there is no controlling shareholder in the interested party – the details of the interested parties in it shall be provided.

7. If a senior officer holds five percent or more of the issued share capital of the corporation or of the voting power therein, his holdings must be detailed in the “interested parties” holdings table as set out in Section A above.

8. If the interested party or the senior officer also holds securities in his held company, if its operations are material to the operations of the corporation, details of these holdings shall be provided in the “Remarks” field appearing within the holder’s details.
