Explanations:

1. If the interested party holds more than one type of security, the holding percentages taking into account all the securities held by him must be indicated in only one of the rows.

2. Holdings in other securities, including other securities that are not listed for trading, must also be reported.

3. In a case where the interested party is a subsidiary, the holdings must be split between shares acquired before the Companies Law, 1999 came into force and shares acquired after it came into force.

4. When the holder is not a member of an institutional reporting group, only section 3(a) must be completed. When the holder is a member of an institutional reporting group, sections 3(a) and 3(b) must be completed.

5. If the interested party is a corporation wholly owned (100%) by a single controlling shareholder, the "Name of holder" field shall state the name of the single controlling shareholder, and in the notes at the bottom of the form the details of the corporation or corporations through which the shares are held shall be set out, together with any other relevant detail. In contrast, if the interested party is a corporation held by more than one controlling shareholder, or held by several interested parties, the "Name of holder" field shall state the name of the holding corporation, and in the notes at the bottom of the form the details of the controlling shareholders or interested parties who hold the holding corporation shall be set out.

6. A report regarding a holder of a material means of control in a banking corporation without a controlling core shall be reported in report T121.

* It must be stated whether these are dormant shares or securities convertible into dormant shares
