Scitex Corporation Comments on Possible Strategic Alternatives for its Holdings

Tel Aviv, Israel – January 19, 2005 In response to press reports published today in Israel, Scitex Corporation Ltd. (Nasdaq and TASE: SCIX) today announced that, consistent with past practice, it continues to explore strategic alternatives relating to its holdings, including a possible initial public offering, and possible dispositions or acquisitions. There is no assurance that any of these alternatives will be pursued or, if one is pursued, the terms on which it would occur.

Forward Looking Statements

Except for the historical information herein, the matters discussed in this news release include forward-looking statements within the meaning of the "safe harbor" provisions of the U.S. Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Forward-looking statements that are based on various assumptions (some of which are beyond the Company's control) may be identified by the use of forward-looking terminology, such as "may", "can be", "will", "expects", "anticipates", "intends", "believes", "projects", "potential", "are optimistic", "view" and similar words and phrases. Actual results could differ materially from those set forth in forward-looking statements due to a variety of factors, including, but not limited to, (1) risks in product and technology development, (2) market acceptance of new products and continuing product demand, (3) the impact of competitive products and pricing, (4) changes in domestic and foreign economic and market conditions, (5) timely development and release of new products by strategic suppliers, (6) the impact of the Company's accounting policies, (7) risks relating to pursuing strategic alternatives, (8) uncertainty of outcome of shareholder litigation, and (9) the other risk factors detailed in the Company's most recent annual report and other filings with the US Securities and Exchange Commission. Except as may be required by law, the Company does not undertake, and specifically disclaims, any obligation to publicly release the results of any revisions which may be made to any forward-looking statements to reflect the occurrence of anticipated or unanticipated events or circumstances after the date of such forward-looking statements.
