Scailex Corporation's Largest Shareholders to Sell their Stake in the Company

Tel Aviv, Israel – May 29, 2006. Scailex Corporation Ltd. (formerly: Scitex Corporation) (NASDAQ & TASE: SCIX) today announced that its principal shareholders, Clal Industries and Investments Ltd. and Discount Investments Corporation Ltd., informed Scailex that they entered into an agreement for the sale of their entire shareholdings in Scailex to Israel Petrochemical Enterprise Ltd., an Israeli holding company whose shares are traded on the Tel Aviv Stock Exchange.

Under the agreement, Clal and Discount Investments agreed to sell to Israel Petrochemical Enterprises all of the 18,800,255 Scailex shares held by them, representing approximately 49.4% of Scitex's outstanding share capital, for an aggregate purchase price of $165 million, or $8.776 per share, subject to certain purchase price adjustments. The closing of the transaction, which is expected to occur by the end of August 2006, is subject to customary closing conditions, including the approval of the Israeli Restrictive Trade Commissioner.

Forward Looking Statements

Except for the historical information herein, the matters discussed in this news release include forward-looking statements within the meaning of the "safe harbor" provisions of the U.S. Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Forward-looking statements that are based on various assumptions (some of which are beyond the Company's control) may be identified by the use of forward-looking terminology, such as "may", "can be", "will", "expects", "anticipates", "intends", "believes", "projects", "potential", "are optimistic", "view" and similar words and phrases. Actual results could differ materially from those set forth in forward-looking statements due to a variety of factors, including, but not limited to, (1) our absence of significant operations following the sale of the business of Scailex Vision and uncertainty as to our future business model and our ability to identify and evaluate suitable business opportunities, (2) the fact that our U.S. shareholders may suffer adverse tax consequences if we are classified as a passive foreign investment company or PFIC, (3) changes in domestic and foreign economic and market conditions, (4) the impact of the Company's accounting policies, (5) risks relating to pursuing strategic alternatives, (6) risks and uncertainties associated with the tax and accounting consequences of the sale of the business of Scailex Vision, (7) risks and uncertainties relating to the Company's plans for its financial assets following the sale of Scailex Vision, (8) the fact that we may be deemed an "investment company" under the Investment Company Act of 1940 under certain circumstances (including as a result of the investments of assets following the sale of the operations of Scitex Vision), and/or the risk that we may be required to take certain actions with respect to the investment of our assets or the distribution of cash to shareholders in order to avoid being deemed an "investment company", (9) risks and uncertainties resulting from the pending sale of approximately 50% of our outstanding share capital by our two principal shareholders to an unaffiliated third party and the potential impact on the Company and our operations and strategies, and (10) the other risk factors detailed in the Company's most recent annual report and other filings with the US Securities and Exchange Commission, including without limitation, those set forth under such headings as "Risk Factors" and "Trend Information" in the Company's Annual Report on Form 20-F. Except as may be required by law, the Company does not undertake, and specifically disclaims, any obligation to publicly release the results of any revisions which may be made to any forward-looking statements to reflect the occurrence of anticipated or unanticipated events or circumstances after the date of such forward-looking statements.
