Explanations:

1. It is also required to report holdings of other securities (which are not BONDS), including other securities that are not listed for trading.
2. In a case where a report is required on holdings of BONDS that are not convertible into shares, the holdings status may be attached as a PDF file in the designated field at the end of Section B, instead of entering the data in the form, all in accordance with the provisions of Legal Staff Position No. 104-21: Link.
The PDF file must be prepared in a structure and content corresponding to the Excel file published by the Authority and attached to the staff position. The PDF file will include, at a minimum, the information appearing in the Excel file.
3. If the interested party holds more than one type of security in the corporation, the holding percentage (including full dilution) should be indicated taking into account all the securities held by him in one single row.
4. In this form, the holdings status of all interested parties should be detailed, including those whose holdings have not changed.
5. In a case where the interested party is a held company with activities that are material to the activities of the corporation, the holdings must be broken down into shares that were acquired prior to the entry into force of the Companies Law, 1999, and which confer rights in capital and voting, and shares that were acquired after its entry into force and are dormant shares.
6. If the interested party is a corporation, the first name of the ultimate sole controlling shareholder(s) of this corporation must also be indicated. If the interested party has no controlling shareholder – the details of the interested parties therein will be presented.
7. If a senior officer holds five percent or more of the issued share capital of the corporation or of the voting power therein, his holdings should be detailed in the “interested parties” holdings table as specified in Section A above.
8. If the interested party or the senior officer also holds securities in a held company of his, if its activities are material to the activities of the corporation, details of such holdings will be provided in the “Remarks” field appearing within the holder’s details.
