B. The holder is not a member of an institutional reporting group.

- The holder is not a member of an institutional reporting group, but serves/served as an office holder in the company who is not a CEO or director and was not an interested party by virtue of his holdings.
- The holder is a hedge fund as defined in the Joint Investment Trust Regulations (Assets Permitted to be Purchased and Held by a Fund and Their Maximum Rates), 1994.
 - The hedge fund has the right to appoint a director or its representative to the company's board: _____
- The holder is a member of an institutional reporting group. Below is a breakdown of his holdings:

Holder	Name, Type, and Series of Security	Security Number on Exchange	Quantity of Securities	Dormant
_____	_____	_____	_____	_____

Explanations:

1. If the interested party holds more than one type of security, the holding percentages should be indicated considering all securities held by him in only one row.
 2. It is also necessary to report the holding of other securities, including those not listed for trading.
 3. If the interested party is a subsidiary, the holdings should be split between shares acquired before the entry into force of the Companies Law, 1999, and shares acquired after its entry into force.
 4. When the holder is not a member of an institutional reporting group, only section 3A should be completed. When the holder is a member of an institutional reporting group, sections 3A and 3B should be completed.
- Please indicate whether these are dormant shares or securities convertible into dormant shares.
