In November 2004, the Tel Aviv District Court acquitted DIC, several past executive officers of DIC and one of its other officers, and accepted their appeal filed in such Court against a judgment of Tel Aviv Magistrate's Court convicting them in February 2002, of criminal offenses under the Israeli Securities Act, 1968, regarding the inclusion of a misleading detail in DIC's annual and quarterly financial statements in order to mislead a reasonable investor by not attaching the financial statements of certain companies to DIC's financial statements in respect of the financial reporting periods from 1990 through the first quarter of 1995 filed with the Tel Aviv Stock Exchange and the Israeli Registrar of Companies. In December 2004, the prosecution filed in the Supreme Court of Israel a request for leave to appeal against the aforesaid decision of the Tel Aviv District Court. This request of the prosecution has not yet been heard by the Supreme Court. None of the activities underlying the legal proceedings described above, which activities ended in May 1995, relate to or involve the Issuer or its business in any way.

(e) None of the Reporting Persons or, to the knowledge of the Reporting Persons, any director or executive officer named in Schedules A, B, C and D to this Amendment, has, during the last five years, been a party to a civil proceeding of a judicial or administrative body of competent jurisdiction which as a result of such proceeding was or is subject to a judgment, decree or final order enjoining future violations of, or prohibiting or mandating activities subject to, Federal or state securities laws or finding any violation with respect to such laws.

None of the Reporting Persons purchased or sold any Ordinary Shares during the last 60 days preceding February 9, 2006.
