Explanations:

1. A report must also be made on the holding of other securities (not BONDS), including other securities that are not listed for trading.
2. In a case where a report is required on the holding of BONDS that are not convertible into shares, it is permitted to attach the status of the holdings as a PDF file in the dedicated field at the end of Section B, instead of entering the data in the form, all in accordance with the provisions of Legal Staff Position No. 104-21: Link.
The PDF file must be prepared in a structure and content corresponding to the Excel file that was published by the Authority and attached to the staff position. The PDF file shall include, at a minimum, the information appearing in the Excel file.
3. If the interested party holds more than one type of security in the corporation, the holding percentage (including on a fully diluted basis) must be stated taking into account all the securities held by him in a single row only.
4. In this form, the status of the holdings of all interested parties must be detailed, including those whose holdings have not changed.
5. In a case where the interested party is a held company with material activity to the activity of the corporation, the holdings must be split into shares purchased prior to the entry into force of the Companies Law, 5759 – 1999, and which grant rights in capital and in voting, and shares purchased after its entry into force which are dormant shares.
6. If the interested party is a corporation, the first name of the ultimate controlling shareholder/s in this corporation must also be stated. If the interested party has no controlling shareholder - the details of the interested parties in it will be provided.
7. If a senior officer holds five percent or more of the issued share capital of the corporation or of the voting power therein, his holdings must be detailed in the "interested parties" holdings table as set forth in Section A above.
8. If the interested party or senior officer also holds securities in his held company, if its activities are material to the activity of the corporation, a description of these holdings will be provided in the "Remarks" field appearing within the holder's details.
