Company Announcement No. 17-2021

Copenhagen, 01 June, 2021

Valuer announces the following restructuring in the sales organization:

Martin Ernst resigns as CCO in Valuer as of today as he has accepted a job as CCO at 2021.ai.

CEO Dennis Poulsen will take over Martin Ernst's responsibilities. Furthermore, Board member Susanne Larsson will assist with the tier one global accounts which were her responsibility at KPMG. Finally, the Board of Directors now start the process of fulfilling the management team with additional resources within sales and commercial activities.

Chairman Finn Peder Hove states "I appreciate the great effort Martin Ernst has done as CCO in Valuer, establishing the foundation for the sales organisation, and I wish Martin Ernst the best of luck in his next appointment".

Martin Ernst says "It has been a pleasure working in Valuer and being a part of the growth journey. I will miss all the great colleagues and hope Valuer will fulfill its ambition to become the innovation platform of choice. I have accepted a job as CCO at 2021.ai, a job offer I couldn't resist. I wish Valuer all the best fulfilling the growth strategy".
