EANS-Adhoc: STRABAG SE expects EBIT 2014 of at least 260 million Euro

Earnings Forecast/Analysts' Comments

The STRABAG SE Management Board expects a challenging environment with a higher price pressure in European infrastructure construction. In contrast, the company notices further solid conditions in private building construction. After having internally evaluated all information today, the Board expects earnings before interest and taxes (EBIT) of at least EUR 260 million for the current financial year, which is consistent with the forecasted EBIT of 2013.

The disclosure of output volume, order backlog and employees figures 2013 will take place on 17 January 2014; the detailed figures for 2013 will be published on 30 April 2014.
