Key rating drivers, as strengths and constraints, are provided below.

Strengths	Constraints
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Increase in revenues and sales volume upon capacity expansions and expected increase in the upcoming periods through reaching full capacity in FY2022, Strong level of profitability indicators, High amount of liquid assets guards against imminent cash outflow and supporting leverage profile, Robust growth in assets and equity base sustained by retained earnings and period income, High receivable quality supported by insured receivables and having effective distribution network, Competitive advantage by production capacity expansion, having well-located production facility and producing niche products, High level of compliance with the corporate governance practices and international quality standards. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Deterioration in CFO generation capacity in 2022 creating external funding needs for operational cycle, Customs duty on Turkish ceramic companies as a result of anti-dumping investigation by the EU, Tight financial conditions, accompanied by global banking concerns, disrupt global growth projections.

Considering the aforementioned points, the Company's the Long-Term National Issuer Credit Rating has been revised as 'AA (tr)'. The Company's asset quality, growth performance, market position, sectoral developments and risk factors in the markets have been evaluated as important indicators for the stability of the ratings and the outlooks for Long and Short-Term National Issuer Credit Ratings are determined as 'Stable'. The Company's capital adequacy, financial structure, sales performance, asset quality, growth performance, profitability ratios and the trends of the existing risks in the markets and the business environment will be closely monitored by JCR Eurasia Rating in upcoming periods. The macroeconomic indicators at national and international markets, as well as market conditions and legal framework about the sector will be monitored as well.
